CIVILIANS IN BUCHAREST DEPART IN GREAT NUMBERS AS ARMIES OF TEUTONS DRAW NEARER THE CITY

Swiss Newspaper Publishes Reports That Half of the Population Has Already Left.

MILITARY CONTROLS FOOD

Falkenhayn is Increasing His Pressure on Rumanian Defenses East of Alt River.

CURTEA DE ARGES TAKEN

Monument of Late King Carol Falls Into Enemy's Hands.

Berlin, Nov. 30 (via Sayville)—The Rumanian defensive positions in the mountain district east of the Alt river now are more and more under the increasing pressure of General Von Falkenhayn's advancing army, says the Overseas News Agency. After the victory near Tigeni, on November 26, the fate of the long-defended position at Curtea de Arges was doomed, and there the monument of the late King Carol, of Rumania, fell into the possession of General Von Falkenhayn. In southern Wallachia, General von Mackensen's armies are advancing irresistibly, continues the Overseas Agency, while in Dobrudja the Bulgarians, together with Turkish artillery, repulsed Russian attacks.

Exodus of Civilians.

Bucharest is declared to be changing into a war camp. Half the population already has left the Rumanian capital, according to reports published by the Swiss newspaper, the Berne Bund.

General Berthelot, the French military strategist with the Rumanian army, and the chief of police of Bucharest, are reported by the Lokal Anzeiger to have issued an order directing the majority of the population of the capital, especially women and children, to leave the precincts of the fortress at Bucharest within five days. The railroad running to Galatz and Jassy is declared to be taxed beyond its capacity and additional travel to those cities is not permitted.

Food Reported Confiscated.

All persons remaining in Bucharest will be employed for military and sanitary duty and from November 29 all food supplies are reported to have been taken under the control of the military officers to be dealt to the public daily.

According to this report, every inhabitant more than 16 years old, must report at military headquarters where a decision is given as to how long they may remain in Bucharest.

ALLIES READY TO DEBARK TROOPS AT PORT OF PIRAEUS

Athens, Nov. 30, (via London, Dec. 1) —The Entente Allies are ready to begin the debarkation of troops at Piraeus, the port of Athens. The Greek government has retaken control of the postoffices and telegraph lines in Athens, expelling the French control officers.

ONLY THE POTATO RATION OF GERMANS TO BE REDUCED

Berlin, Nov. 29 (via London, Nov. 30.) —The Germans will go through the winter without change in their present rations of important foodstuffs except a reduction in the potato ration, according to authoritative information furnished the Associated Press on the food situation from the war nutrition bureau. This shows that while supplies at various times would in themselves perhaps justify an increase, it has been determined to adhere to the present allowances of 250 grammes of bread daily, 250 grammes of meat and 90 grammes of fat weekly and 750 grammes of sugar monthly and use any surplus, either accumulation or reserve for the hard laboring classes such as miners and foundrymen.

FURTHER TEUTON GAIN WOULD BE A "CONSIDERABLE SUCCESS"

London, Nov. 30.—Although satisfied that the Rumanian army is still absolutely intact, Major General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, told the Associated Press today that any further advance of the Germans means a considerable success, as a step forward gives them the corn district, while a still further step means their possession of the oil belts. Russia is moving, however, and the fact that the Rumanian army is still intact is encouraging. Even the German reports claim to have taken only 1,200 men and a few guns, which means that my prediction of last week, that no more than a rear guard would be captured, has been more than fulfilled.

"The Rumanians have been occupying a dangerous salient, with one army hammering from the north while another was coming up from the Danube and its safe extrication is no mean feat of arms. Whether this intact means the army will make a stand before the capital remains to be seen."

Enemy Is Almost In Shelling Distance of Bucharest Forts

Mackensen's Forces Have Captured the Town of Tzomana, Sixteen Miles South of the Capital, While Falkenhayn's Men Are Drawing Closer In From the West and Northwest—Russian Offensive Offers Little Impediment.

The forces of Field Marshal Von Mackensen are almost within shelling distance of the southern forts which protect Bucharest, the capital of Rumania. Driving along the railroad leading north from Giurgiu, Von Mackensen has captured the town of Tzomana, 16 miles south of Bucharest, and at last accounts was still making progress toward his objective.

Meanwhile, the army of General Von Falkenhayn is keeping up its pressure against the Rumanians west and northwest of the capital, in the center having forced the Rumanians to fall back to Glavatsiotzu, 37 miles from Bucharest ,and farther north, having captured the town of Campulung, thus opening the way for the unhindered advance of additional troops of the Central Powers through the Torzburg Pass into Wallachia.

The offensive begun by the Russians in the region of Kirlibaba apparently is not impeding to any extent the Teutonic inroads into Rumania. Additional gains are conceded to the Russians in this region, but again it is assured that they have been dearly paid for in casualties. The Rumanians on the north and northwest fronts have made progress in the Buzeu and Phahova valleys.

In none of the other theatres has there been any fighting of great intensity so far as the official reports show. The big guns of the belligerents on the front in France and Belgium are still active at various points. The only infantry engagement reported was near Ypres, where in an attack on a two miles front, the British were repulsed, according to Berlin. Both Berlin and Sofia record the repulse of Entente Allied attacks in the region of Monastir, Serbia, where rain and fog are hindering the operations.

In the Russian theatre, Turkish troops have stopped strong Russian attacks on the Zlota Lipa river in Galicia.

The much discussed bill providing for compulsory service of civilians for war service in Germany, known as the "man power bill," has been introduced in the Reichstag. In introducing it, Chancellor von Bethman Hollweg again reiterated that Germany was ready to end the war by a peace guaranteeing the existence and future of the German nation.

MILITARY RULE IN DOMINGO DECLARED

Eighteen Hundred United States Marines Will Maintain Order for the Present.

PROCLAMATION BY NAVY

Government Determined That There Shall be No Renewal of Revolutions to Menace International Relations.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Military rule has been proclaimed in Santo Domingo by the United States Navy to suppress existing political chaos in the little republic and pave the way for guaranteeing future quiet by establishing there such a financial and political protectorate as the American government now exercises over Haiti. Eighteen hundred marines will maintain order for the present and at least until elections are held in January, their officers will supervise the conduct of government by native officials and disburse the customs revenues which American receivers have been collecting by treaty arrangement for nine years.

Proclamation Well Received.

The Navy proclamation issued yesterday, apparently has been put into effect without bloodshed. It was announced here today by Secretary Daniels in the following statement:

"Capt. H. S. Knapp, in command of the United States forces in San Domingo, reports that in compliance with instructions received, military government was proclaimed by him in San Domingo 4 P. M., November 29. An order prohibiting carrying, or having in possession, arms has been put in effect. Payment of salaries of government officials will be resumed immediately."

The proclamation was well received. Conditions are reported as being normal and the great majority of the people regard the proclamation with favor.

Captain Knapp's action was the result of plans carefully worked out by State and Navy Department officials after conferences with Minister Russell, recalled from Santo Domngo for the purpose, and consideration of reports from naval officers on the scene.

No Infringement on Rights.

The necessity for a drastic step has been considered since the overthrow, several months ago, of President Jiminez by General Arias, a strongly anti-American revolutionist. With Arias in control the Dominican assembly elected Frederico Enriques president, but the United States refused to recognize the new government and withheld the balance of customs revenues left after payments of interest on the foreign debt. Consequently the native officials and employes now will draw their first pay since the downfall of Jiminez.

Secretary Daniels explained today that the form of rule set up by Captain Knapp did not contemplate any infringement of the civil rights or processes of the native government. The municipal and civil laws will still be administered by Dominican courts.

To Ask Ratification of Treaty.

Upon the election of a president by the assembly to be chosen in January, the United States will ask for the ratification of the treaty similar to that now in force with Haiti, providing for

NO SCHOOL SYSTEM IN STATE HE SAYS

President R. H. Wright Delivers Annual Address Before N. Carolina Teachers' Assembly.

PROF. HAGEDORN WINS CUP

Dr. T. H. Briggs and Dr. W. P. Dykema Address Assembly—President Wright Urges Unification and Co-Ordination.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 30.—In his annual address to the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly tonight, President R. H. Wright declared that in reality North Carolina has no public school system, but really 180 different systems with the State Department of Education as the nominal head, having no authority over the greater part of the workers. The Legislature, he insisted, must pass an enabling act and standardize the teaching and bring into unification and co-ordination the rural and city graded schools.

He advocated the appointment by the Legislature of a special commission of capable educators to spend two years investigating North Carolina educational conditions and needs, reporting to the subsequent Legislature in order that there may be really intelligent legislation.

Dr. T. H. Briggs, of Columbia University, delivered an address on educational progress in North Carolina and factors for further development.

Dr. W. P. Dykema, of the University of Wisconsin, delivered an address on "Music for Every Man," and closed the evening with the presentation in happy vein of the Shirley Loving Cup, offered by Professor Shirley, dean of music in Salem Academy & College, for the best musical composition each year by a North Carolinian. The winner for the first year is Prof. Gustav Hagedorn, of Raleigh, his composition being "Dark Was the Night."

DR. M'GEACHY DELIVERS THE ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERMON

(Special Star Correspondence).

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 30.—"The Chrysalis of Character" was the theme of the Thanksgiving message to the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly today by Rev. A. A. McGeachy, D. D., of Charlotte, in delivering the annual sermon to the teachers of the State. The text was Luke 1:66—"What Manner of Child Shall This Be?"

He told the teachers this question should lie very heavy on their consciences because they have so much to do with answering it; that they largely settle the principles that determine their destiny. Honesty, purity, sincerity were stressed as special factors to be developed in teaching the child with the watchword always "Character."

He would like to see a compulsory school law for a longer term and with no loopholes, compulsory law requiring physical examination of all school children in town and country, State board of examiners with uniform scholarship standard for teachers and higher salaries, the whole work

SURVIVING FORCE OF DEFACTO ARMY REACHES JUAREZ

DEAD BURNED IN STREETS

Hospitals at Juarez Filled With Wounded; Many Civilians Killed by Shell Fire

Juarez, Mex., Nov. 30. — The remnants of a Carranza army that fled from Chihuahua City after a battle with Villa troops are in camp tonight on the plains south of Juarez. They brought with them a story of the evacuation of the city after four days and nights of fighting. The dead were piled high in the streets when they left, and had been covered with oil and burned, they said.

Soon after 1 A. M. today the first troop train brought the ragged survivors of the de facto force which had escaped to the north. Accompanying this train was a sanitary section carrying more than 100 wounded Carranza soldiers. The hospitals here are filled with wounded. The troop trains that brought this surviving force to the border left Chihuahua City at 10:30 Monday morning.

The troops brought back many of their field pieces. Women camp followers shared in the retreat. Some of them had children, said to have been born on the battlefield.

Dead Covered Streets.

Refugees said that between the cemetery and Santa Rosa Hill the dead covered the streets. Along the streets near the railroad station and surrounding the station, one of the refugees said he saw many cavalry horses with carbines and sabres attached to the saddles. The Carranza cavalrymen abandoned them in order to leave the city on the troop train. Along Zarco avenue the fighting had been fiercest and many civilians had been killed there, and in other parts of the city, by shell fire and rifle balls. Many houses were damaged.

All of the refugees agreed that Carranza troops were winning during the first four days of the fighting, but either because of a shortage of ammunition or lack of morale, they abandoned the city early on the fifth morning of the battle, fleeing in all directions.

The taking of Santa Rosa hill, which always has been known as the key to Chihuahua, was said by one foreign refugee to have started the retirement of the Carranza forces, which, he said, resembled a rout before the last train left.

One civilian refugee claimed that General Gonzales Cuellar was responsible for the taking of Santa Rosa Hill, where he was in command, as he drowned the infantry line to be weakened.

It is believed by the refugees and Carranza officers that General Trevino left first for Tabaloapa, south of the city, and from there moved to Jiminez, about 20 miles from Chihuahua City.

Villa Walked Without Crutches

One Mexican civilian refugee declared today he had seen Villa in the city Monday morning. He said Villa was walking without crutches as if to inspire his men with his fortitude. He looked much thinner than of old.

To obtain medicine for his wounded, Villa is said by this refugee to have broken into two drug stores in the city. Thinking this action meant the beginning of looting, Villa bandits broke into stores and private homes. Villa is

ADDITIONAL REVENUE CUTTER RECOMMENDED

To be Stationed at Beaufort for Duty Around Hatteras.

Commandant of the Service Wants Appropriation of $350,000 for New Boat—Seminole and Onondaga Over-Taxed.

(Special Star Telegram).

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—In his annual report to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, made public today, Captain E. P. Bertholf, commandant of the revenue cutter service, recommends an appropriation of $350,000 for a revenue cutter to be located near Beaufort. This is in addition to the Seminole, which has been located at Wilmington for some time and which Captain Bertholf says has done meritorius service.

It is also recommended that an appropriation of $5,000 be made to put the telephone and telegraph lines now operated by the Coast Guard along the North Carolina coast in first class condition and $30,000 to be used in extending the present Coast Guard line from Hatteras inlet southward along the coast to Beaufort so that the stations will be connected with commercial telegraph and telephone lines at Beaufort.

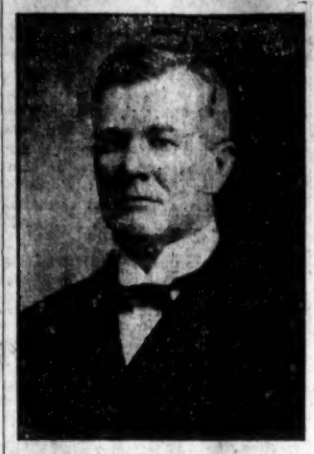
GENERAL W. L. LONDON.



General W. L. London died at his home in Pittsboro, N. C., yesterday. He was a prominent business man, connected with various interests in Chatham county, which in his death suffers the loss of one of its most valued citizens. He was a brother of Maj. Henry A. London.

SUBSTITUTES FOR TURKEY WERE USED

Pinch of High Cost of the National Bird Felt in Homes and Public Institutions.

RELIEF COLLECTIONS TAKEN

Many Churches in New York Acted in Accordance With the President's Admonition to Remember the War Sufferers.

New York, Nov. 30.—The pinch of the high cost of turkey was felt in many homes and some public institutions in the observance of Thanksgiving here today and resulted in the substitution of chickens, ducks, geese, corn beef, pork, vegetables or pie. Nevertheless a greater effort than ever before was made to provide some kind of Thanksgiving Day dinner for the poor.

Groans of disappointment greeted the announcement at a dinner given by the Salvation Army to 600 men that the organization all over the country had boycotted turkeys and eggs. Soup, vegetables and pie were substituted.

In most of the city institutions and hospitals turkey was supplied to the inmates. Thousands of poor men were given turkey dinners by charitable organizations.

Remembering the admonition of President Wilson to contribute funds to the relief of the people of the warring nations collections were taken in al of the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches and those of some other denominitations for the Red Cross or other relief organizations.

Patriotism and the spirit of internationalism found expression in many Thanksgiving Day sermons in the churches, where special services were held. Suggestions of a federation of the world or united states of the world were made by some of the pastors while others warned the people of America against "fattening on the world's leanness."

CHARGE AGAINST W. H. COOPER, OF WASHINGTON, IS DISMISSED

District Attorney Decides Not to Prosecute for Alleged Libel.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—The indictment alleging libel, reported by the grand jury in March, 1914, against W. H. Cooper, president of the Union Savings Bank, of this city, has been not prossed by District Attorney John E. Lasky, who decided not to prosecute Mr. Cooper for the alleged offense, after submitting evidence compiled by the government to the Department of Justice.

Consent to the dismissal of the charge was given by Justice Gould, before whom Mr. Lasky presented the matter yesterday.

Mr. Cooper, who has two brothers in Wilmington, was accused in the indictment of making defamatory statements reflecting upon Daniel Thew Weight, while he was an associate justice of the District Supreme court.

SOUTHERN TRAIN CRASHES INTO FREIGHT NEAR ELMWOOD

Three Trainmen Injured and Number of Passengers Bruised.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 30.—Three trainmen were injured and a number of passengers slightly bruised early this morning when Southern Railway passenger train No. 15 ,due at Asheville at 11:15 A. M., crashed into a freight train near Elmwood, eight miles east of Statesville.

The injured are William B. Garrison, Glen Alpine, N. C., mail clerk, leg pierced by splinters; Ernest Allison, Asheville, fireman; both arms broken, head crushed; John Cline, Asheville, engineer on passenger train, hand crushed. A number of passengers received bruises of a minor nature. The cause of the wreck is said to have been the failure of the freight engineer to see the switch signal at Elmwood on account of a heavy fog.

CAROLINA CONQUERER OF VIRGINIA AFTER 10 SUCCESSIVE DEFEATS

VIRGINIA UNABLE TO SCORE

FOLGER'S WORK FEATURED

Victory Celebrated by Snake Dance and Parade.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 30. — The University of North Carolina eleven this afternoon defeated the University of Virginia team, 7 to 0, for the first time since 1905, Folger dashing 52 yards through the Virginia eleven for a touchdown, and Captain Tandy kicking goal.

The game was won in the presence of a crowd estimated at 14,000, and composed of the alumni and students of the two universities, as well as persons prominent in official and social life through both North Carolina and Virginia. Carolina was led in a snake dance by its student band, after the game was through, over the field, and later in a march through the principal streets of the city.

Folger Outstanding Feature.

From a standpoint or football the game left much to be desired. Folger's work was the outstanding feature. He was taken from the game during the latter part of the final period as a result of an injury and after he began showing effects of overwork. Up to that time he had been the principal ground gainer for the victors and had aided them materially with his punting. Coleman, who succeeded him, also punted well and ran riot through the Virginia line. Captain Tandy, and Ramsay, playing their last game of college football, played excellently.

Virginia in Poor Form.

Virginia displayed the poor form she has manifested throughout the present season. Thurman was a disappointment to many, his punting being handicapped by the fact that he found it necessary to face a strong wind most of the time. Gooch found it possible to make the best gains for Virginia and C. White also made several runs for fair distances. Virginia showed proficiency in the use of the forward pass and worked several for a total gain of 48 yards.

Score Made in Third Period.

Carolina had played the opening period for the most part in Virginia territory. Folger scored in the third period. He started through tackle and, throwing off man after man dashed up the side line and across the goal, Thurman and Kilsoving missing tackles 20 yards from the goal. Carolina won from

DECLARES GERMANY IS HELPED BY GOD

Hollweg Says a Peace Which Guarantees Nation's Existence Will be Accepted.

ADDRESSES THE REICHSTAG

Says Germany's Enemies Desire War and Destruction and Urges That No Hands be Idle—Helferrich Also Speaks.

Berlin, Nov. 30. (via Sayville)—Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg, in an address to the Reichstag yesterday, introducing the man-power bill, again announced that Germany was ready to end the war by a peace guaranteeing the existence and future of the nation.

In presenting the bill providing for compulsory service of civilians for war purposes, the chancellor spoke in regard to the military situation and the purposes of the measure.

"The war continues, with its destructive forces," the chancellor said. "Accordingly our enemies desire it. They celebrated the past summer as a period of victory. But did they obtain what they wanted? Our lines are unbroken, and Rumania, through which a great change of events was expected, is now atoning for what she did. God has helped us up to the present. He will help us further.

"The almost superhuman heroism of our troops, which cannot be expressed in words of thanks, and our clear conscience since we, the first and only ones, were ready and are ready to end the war by a peace guaranteeing our existence and our future—they give us moral right to such confidence. But, gentlemen, this right ought not to make us forget duty. Our enemies do not yet desire peace. They have superior numbers at their command and almost the whole world delivers war material to them."

The chancellor urged the necessity to do everything in Germany's power in order to manufacture the necessary war material, saying:

"Hands that are idle assist the enemy."

"On behalf of the confederate governments," the chancellor continued, "I ask you to assist in the work which will bring us new strength and guide us toward victory and peace."

Dr. Helfferich, minister of the interior, said:

"The home army and field army in this war join hands for an indissoluble union. Underneath the German soil are rich treasures, but they must be lifted to the daylight."

Dr. Helfferich then quoted a German song, which a century ago during the war of deliverance inspired the German troops—"The Lord who made iron to grow wants no slaves."

"This is as true today as it was a century ago, as it always will be," said the minister. "This is a war carried on, not only with arms, but it is an economic war of nations. England, which always speaks of protecting neutrals, has by her interference with mails, spying system and black lists cut off necessary imports from them and has caused them more damage than ever an enemy could do.

"In this economic war we, together with our allies, stand in all essential things alone. Our enemies can continue to import from across the seas. England; as her chancellor of the exchequer has stated, has thus bought every week to the amount of 12,000,000 pounds, which is twelve thousand million marks a year. France during ten months paid for the same purpose twelve thousand million francs. Half the world is at our enemies' disposal.

"We have no trans-Atlantic imports; we must rely upon our own work and must produce what we need by our own work. The earth yields what we need for food. But we must work and once more have peace. This law mobilizes work; it does not begin, but completes the mobilization of national work."

TO CONVERT BIG TRACT INTO FARMS AND STOCK RANGES

New York Syndicate Buys 45,000 Acres Swamp Land Near Belhaven, N. C.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 30.—The announcement was made today that a New York syndicate, headed by Mark W. Potter, president of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio railroad, had bought a tract of 45,000 acres of swamp land near Belhaven, N. C., from the John L. Roper Lumber Company. The tract ,which has been practically cleared of timber, is to be turned into farms and stock raising ranges by reclamation project planned by the purchasers. It is said to be as rich as any soil in the world.

J. H. Young, president of the Norfolk Southern railway, who confirmed the closing of the deal, declined to state the monetary consideration involved.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Nov. 30.—Five physicians and five nurses are attending John D. Archbold, who is ill here. The physicians refused tonight to amrm or deny a report that an operation for the transfusion of blood had been performed upon Mr. Archbold.

DECLARES THERE IS COLD STORAGE TRUST

Says Combination Exists for Keeping Up Food Prices.

Commissioner Hartigan Charges the "Trust" Operates in Three States. Housewives Thrift Clubs to be Organized.

New York, Nov. 30.—The existence of an interstate combination of cold storage houses to keep up food prices was charged today by Joseph Hartigan, commissioner of weights and measures, who as secretary of Mayor Mitchel's committee on food supply is investigating the cost of living with a view to effecting a relief for consumers.

"There is a so-called cold storage trust," Mr. Hartigan said. "Its membership comprises 75 cold storage warehouses in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. It is believed that to evade the laws of the various states it is made easy for the owner of goods in one cold storage warehouse to hold his goods in one state until just before the time expires for the goods to be released and then to move them to a warehouse in another state and keep them there as long as the law allows in that other state. The laws relating to cold storage houses are a joke from a national standpoint. If the Federal government were to take under its control all the cold storage houses in

FIRE IN GREENSBORO DOES $100,000 DAMAGE

Plant of South Atlantic Lumber Company is Destroyed.

Over 2,000,000 Feet of Lumber Burned. Serious Damage Done to Wires of Western Union Telegraph Company.

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 30.—The plant of the South Atlantic Lumber Company, located along the main line of the Southern Railway, on the outer edge of Greensboro, was destroyed by fire tonight. The fire was discovered about 8 o'clock and before it was gotten under control at 10 o'clock had destroyed the entire plant of the company and over 2,000,000 feet of lumber. Southern Railway main line trains passing here were delayed, being unable to pass the scene of the fire, while more than 100 wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company were either destroyed or put out of commission. The loss is roughly estimated at over $100,000.

ALLIED SHIPPING WARNED OF PRESENCE OF SUBMARINES

Told to Avoid Regular Lanes of Travel in Atlantic Off Boston.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 30.—Shipping circles reported today that radio messages warning Entente allied shipping to avoid the regular steamship lanes because of the reported presence of German submarines off this city, in the Atlantic had been sent out today, at least once every four hours. The warnings are believed to have come from allied cruisers patrolling the coast, and the British government stations at Halifax and Bermuda, and were similar to those which have been sent broadcast for the last few weeks.

Foreign shipping according to reports received here again today, avoided the regular lane off the Nantucket Sheals lightship, where the U-53 operated October 8.

RE-DISTRIBUTION OF BOX CARS WILL BE NATION-WIDE

New Order to be Issued Today to be Effective Immediately.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Nation-wide redistribution of box cars is required by a new order agreed upon by the railroad conference committee on car enciency in its campaign to relieve the car shortage which is holding freight shipments in many parts of the country. The order, which will be issued tomorrow to become effective immediately, directs lines in sections where there is no excess of such equipment to return at junction points until further notice specified percentages of box cars in excess of the number received by them.

PRESIDENT PEYTON ASKS AID OF MEDIATION BOARD

To Settbel Dispute BetweenN.,C.&St.L. Railroad and Its Employes.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 30.—The services of the Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation were asked for tonight by President Peyton, of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway, to adjust a controversy with the road's employes which already has resulted in the brotherhood members voting overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. Brotherhood officials did not join in the request for mediation, but indicated that they would not oppose it.

NO SCHOOL SYSTEM IN STATE HE SAYS

Dr. McGeachy appealed for development of the individuality of the child. "A man is not a scholar whose mind is simply crammed with the results of other men's thinking; a man is not a gentleman whose manners are merely a social veneer and a man is not a good man whose morality is merely grown on him like mistletoe rather than out of him like a flower." "Strive," said Dr. McGeachy, "to be what you would have the children be, then try to make them what you are yourselves. It was a fine lesson the old Prophet taught, and one for all time, when he stretched himself upon the dead child and warmed him into life. And I want you to extend the snowy whiteness and the summer warmth of your life upon the children committed to your care—eye to eye, lip to lip, hand to hand—till that which is sleeping awakes and that which was dead is made alive again."

There was an immense audience to hear Dr. McGeachy and there was a splendid musical programme in connection with the service, which was held after the Thanksgiving services at the other churches were concluded in order that there might be a general gathering at the auditorium for the assembly service.

DEATH OF MR. D. J. GOODEN.

Aged Confederate Soldier of Bladen County Passes Away.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Abbottsburg, N. C., Nov. 30.—Mr. David James Gooden, aged 75 years, one month and 13 days, died at his home in Bladen county on November 16. There was a calm, quiet dignity about Mr. Gooden that introduced him as a gentleman of the old style, which is being replaced by the live-wire kind of later development. Mr. Gooden was a Confederate soldier and had such a high sense of honor that when in prison he would not take the oath of allegiance but stayed till they liberated him without taking it. He was a member of the Methodist church. He had been paralyzed for 15 years.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE FRANZ-JOSEF IS HELD

Body Borne in Circuitous Route Through Vienna Streets.

Troops, Infantry and Cavalry and Tens of Thousands of Spectators Viewed Procession—Service at St. Stephen's.

London, Nov. 30.—The funeral procession of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, says a dispatch received by way of Berne, left at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Hofburg chapel, where the body had lain in state since Monday, and traversed the streets of Vienna by a circuitous route to St. Stephen's cathedral. The hearse was drawn by eight horses and surrounded by an imperial body guard, lackeys and pages bearing torches and crucifixes.

The route was lined with troops, infantry and cavalry and tens of thousands of spectators crowded the pavements and the roofs and windows of houses. During the progress of the cortege, Emperor Charles drove direct to the cathedral, where he waited with the Empress, the Kings of Bulgaria, Bavaria, Saxony and Wurttemburg and nearly a hundred other members of the imperial family and other royal houses.

Cardinal Piffl, archbishop of Vienna, officiated, assisted by four cardinals, ten bishops and 48 priests. At the conclusion of the funeral services, Emperor Charles walked behind the coffin to the Caputchian church. This is a small edifice and only a few of the privileged were able to enter, the remainder standing outside during the final ceremony of bearing the coffin to the crypt. The emperor, the grand master of the court and two chamberlains followed into the crypt and formally transferred the body to the custody of the Capulchin Monks and the Golden Key of the coffin to the senior Monk.

As Emperor Charles re-ascended to the church, the boom of artillery in salute sounded in the distance.

ALLEGED NIGHT RIDER FREE.

Acquitted in Duplin Court—Wife Murderer Sentenced.

Warsaw, N. C., Nov. 30.—In Duplin Superior Court at Kenansville Will Scott, the Bowden negro who was tried for shooting his wife on September 9, was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary.

Parties charged with conspiracy for "night riding" in Duplin were found not guilty, the State failing to make out a case, and Judge Devin ordered a verdict of not guilty. Some defendants pleaded guilty to violation of the stock law statute and were fined $50 and cost, with prayer for judgment continued.

with regard to the purchase of an additional cutter for the North Carolina coast says:

"The vicinity of Cape Hatteras is, as is well known, one of the most dangerous localities in American waters and a great many vessels annually meet disaster there.

"It might well be termed the birthplace of derelicts, as 10 years of experience with the systematic destruction of derelicts has shown that the majority of these floating menaces originate within a radius of 50 miles of Hatteras. On the occasion of severe blows there are sometimes from five to ten mishaps to passing vessels within a day or two. Calls for help are sent out broadcast, but cannot be answered promptly—sometimes not at all, as the only two available cutters are the Onondaga, stationed at Norfolk, Va., and the Seminole, with headquarters at Wilmington, N. C. In such times both these vessels have much more assistance work than they can attend to and there is urgent need for another vessel in that vicinity.

"It is therefore recommended that a new cutter be authorized for duty around Cape Hatteras, with headquarters at Beaufort, N. C.

"This is the closest port to the cape, and prompt assistance can be rendered from that port as a base of operation. It is estimated that an efficient vessel for these duties will cost $350,000."

Thrift clubs to reduce the cost of living will be organized by the National Housewives League, Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the organization, announced here tonight. A campaign, she asserted, which "will be the greatest movement ever undertaken for the protection of the consumer," will be started tomorrow.

"A regular plan of work has been outlined for the thrift units," said Mrs. Heath, "which will enable housewives to reduce the cost of living by their practice of thrift in adjusting their homes and housekeeping to the present conditions and holding all prices at as near a normal figure as possible, consistent with a square deal for all."

JURY NOW HAS CASE OF THOMAS E. WATSON

No Verdict Had Been Reached at 10:30 Last Night.

Defendant Admitted Responsibility for Mailing the Publications Which Contained Alleged Obscene Matter.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 30.—The case of Thomas E. Watson, charged with having sent obscene matter through the mails, went to the jury in Federal court here at 8:38 o'clock tonight and at 10:30 the jury retired for the night without having reported a verdict. The jury will be brought into court at 10 o'clock tomorrow which will be the earliest that the defendant can know its decision, should one be reached by then.

The jury was told by Presiding Judge Lambdin that the questions to be decided were whether or not the language cited in the four counts of the indictments had been mailed or had been caused to be mailed by the defendant or whether it was not "obscene, lewd, lascivious or filthy," as charged. Watson today admitted responsibility for the mailing, and the court, mentioning this, said:

"The serious controversy" was on the question of the nature of the language. The articles were attacks on the Catholic church.

In the course of summing up his defense Watson cited decisions which he contended gave latitude in the use of words mentioned in the indictment and read quotations from many books, including the Bible.

As the speaker concluded there was a brief outburst of approval from some of the spectators.

District Attorney Donaldson based his plea for conviction mainly on the alleged violation of Federal penal law by the language used in the publications.

The indictments against the defendant is in four counts and Judge Lambdin announced that he might be acquitted or convicted on one or all of them.

THANKSGIVING AT COUNTY HOME

Inmates Return Thanks for Bountiful Dinner Given Them.

Through the hospitality of the people of the city and community, the inmates of the New Hanover County Home were enabled to enjoy a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner yesterday.

Many delicacies, such as cream, cake, fruit, etc., were supplied in addition to the good dinner that was served them. Superintendent F. J. Dempsey was in charge of the affair, and he tried, and succeeded in making all the inmates enjoy themselves. They express their heartfelt gratitude to the people for their generosity, sending a request to The Star office that their thanks be expressed through its columns.

FUNERAL OF MR. CHADBOURN.

Services Were Held Yesterday Afternoon at Oakdale Cemetery.

Funeral services for Mr. Stephen H. Chadbourn, who died Wednesday morning at his home in Spartanburg, S. C., and whose body was brought to this city by train for interment, were held yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at Oakdale cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church. The services were largely attended and many beautiful floral tokens attested in some measure to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The following acted as pall bearers: Honorary—Messrs. Charles S. Grainger and William Latimer, Jr. Active—Messrs. J. W. Yates, Guy Cardwell, W. D. MacMillan, Jr., W. G. Elliott, Clayton Giles, Jr., and Swift M. Boatwright.

SPENT DAY QUIETLY.

President Attended Services at Presbyterian Church in the Morning.

Washington, Nov. 30. — President Wilson spent Thanksgiving Day quietly with members of his family, but tonight he accepted an invitation to attend the Navy Relief Society ball at the Washington navy yard. He and Mrs. Wilson occupied a box.

This morning with Mrs. Wilson he attended his regular Presbyterian church, having declined invitations to the Pan-American mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church, and a joint celebration of Methodist churches.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 30. — By use of forward pass formation, Citadel here today defeated the University of South Carolina by a score of 20 to 2. The only score made by South Carolina was in the first period when, after bucking the Citadel line down the field, the latter's left back was tackled behind his goal line for a safety. Citadel made two goals from forward passes and the third from a blocked punt behind the Carolina line. Two goals were kicked from touchdowns.

Clemson Easy Foe For Presbyterians

DAVIDSON WINS THANKSGIVING GRIDIRON STRUGGLE 33 TO 0. BLACK AND LAWSON WERE FEATURES

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 30.—Davidson found Clemson an easy foe in the Thanksgiving football game played here this afternoon, the Presbyterians winning 33 to 0. The Clemson line could not hold against the driving Davidson machine. The first touchdown was made early in the first period. Two more were scored in the second. Clemson rallied sufficiently in the third period to hold Davidson scoreless, but in the fourth Davidson came back for two more trips across the line. Only three goals were kicked. Black, Davidson right half, made spectacular gains around the ends while Lawson executed several forward passes successfully for Davidson.

The line-up:

Davidson		Clemson
B.Walker	LE	Wiehl
Shaw	LT	Hart
Gray	LG	Poole
B.White	C	Gee
Sayad	RG	Harmon
T.White	RT	Matthews
King	RE	Brown
Keesler	QB	Finley
Black	RHB	Banks
Walker	LHB	Witsell
Burns	FB	Major

The officials of the game were: J. B. Bocock, Georgetown, referee; Hodgson, V. P. I., umpire; Johnson, Virginia, head linesman.

Score by quarters:

Davidson	6	13	0	14—33

SEWANEE AND VANDERBILT TIED IN A RAGGED STRUGGLE.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 30.—Sewanee held Vanderbilt to a scoreless tie here today in one of the most ragged games of football seen at Dudley Field in years. Both teams wasted opportunities to score, Floyd's fumble near Sewanee's goal in the first period threw away a chance for the Commodores, while Herring failed at an easy try for field goal in the third period from Vanderbilt's 11-yard line.

Sewanee played a strong defensive game, smothering the Vanderbilt backs frequently before they could get started. Wortham, half back for Sewanee, was the individual star of the game, his broken field running and returns of punts being brilliant.

BROWN, CONQUEROR OF YALE AND HARVARD, MEETS DEFEAT.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 30.—Brown, conqueror of Yale and Harvard, met a crushing defeat here today at the hands of the powerful Colgate eleven, the final score being 28 to 0. The game was played on a soggy field and rain poured almost in torrents the last half of the match and as a result the light, but fast, Brown backfield could not get going, while Colgate's heavy backs gained almost at will.

Pollard, Brown's negro back, who defeated Harvard almost single-handed, played a strong defensive game, but the wet field prevented him from getting away for long runs.

GEORGIA WINS VICTORY 3 TO 0 OVER ALABAMA ELEVEN.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 30.—Quarterback Connelly's placement goal from the 35-yard line gave Georgia a 3 to 0 victory over the University of Alabama here today in a hard fought football game. Forward passes enabled Georgia to get within striking distance of Alabama's goal.

PENN STATE OUTCLASSED BY UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURG

Pittsburg, Nov. 30.—The University of Pittsburg by completely outclassing Penn State College, won the annual Thanksgiving day football game here today, 31 to 0. Pittsburg scored in every period except the fourth when Penn State braced and held firm against the charging of the heavier team. Features of the game were Herron's 45-yard run for a touchdown and Hasting's dash of 75 yards for a score.

TENNESSEE IS HELD TO A SCORELESS TIE BY KENTUCKY

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 30.—Kentucky State held the heavy University of Tennessee football team to a scoreless tie here this afternoon in a game made slow by the soggy field. The Kentuckians kept the play in Tennessee's territory most of the time, though Tennessee once got the ball to Kentucky's 3-yard line only to lose it on a fumble. Governor Rye and his staff attended the game.

V. P. I. Takes 15th Game From Cadets

FREAK PLAYS AND THRILLS WERE FREQUENT IN ANNUAL STRUGGLE BETWEEN THE TWO VIRGINIA ELEVENS.

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 30.—Virginia Polytechnic Institute won the Thanksgiving Day football game from Virginia Military Institute today 23 to 14, making a record of 15 straight annual victories over the Cadets. Freak plays and thrills for the spectators were frequent and when the final whistle blew the Techs had advanced the ball to within a yard of the Cadets' goal for another touchdown. Hall, Younger and Redd were the stars for the Techs, while Goodman and Bertchey played an excellent game for the Cadets. No scoring was done in the first period.

The Line-up:

V. P. I.		V. M. I.
Gregory	LE	Goodman
Hall	LT	Steele
Parrish	LG	Hawkins
A.B.Moore	C	Nelms (c)
A.P.Moore	RG	Whittle

V. P. I.: Touchdowns—Hall, Younger, Redd; goal from field, Summerville; goal from touchdown, Younger, Lancaster.

V. M. I.: Touchdowns—Goodman, Bertchey; goal from touchdown, Bertchey 2.

Substitutions: V. P. I.—Funkhouser for Gaines, Reimer for Funkhouser, Lancaster for Roden, Howell for A. P. Moore, Gaines for Reimer, Summerville for Howell, Stringer for Gaines, McNeill for Summerville. V. M. I.—Whitt for Gray, Sullivan for Whitt, Gray for Sullivan, Thomas for S. Hawkins, Roberdeau for Marshall, Silverstein for Nelson, Leach for Bertchey.

Washington & Lee Victor Over A. & M.

CROWD ESTIMATED AT 5,000 WITNESSES ANNUAL GRIDIRON CONTEST AT RALEIGH. SCORE WAS 21 TO 0.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 30.—Mixing forward passes with old fashioned line bucking, Washington and Lee today defeated North Carolina A. & M. 21 to 0, in the annual Thanksgiving gridiron game here before a crowd estimated at 5,000.

With a season's record far superior to that of A. & M. the victory of Washington and Lee by no means measured up to expectations and the work for the Virginians did not stand out as prominently as A. & M.'s play. It was forward passes and two blocked punts that enabled the Generals to get within striking distance of two of their touchdowns, but during a majority of the game they were held at bay by the Carolinians.

There were no spectacular runs and Young, Washington and Lee's star backfield man had difficulty in ground gaining. It was Raleigh's first Thanksgiving football game, the two teams heretofore staging their annual battle in Norfolk. The line-up:

A. & M.		W. & L.
McDougal	LE	Larkin
Homewood	LT	Johnson
Lawrence	LG	Bryan
Whitaker	C	Pierrotti
Wagner	RG	Moore
Cook	RT	Ignaco
Haynes	RE	Graham
VanBrocklin	QB	Bagley
McMurray	LH	Young (c)
Pierson	RH	Cromwell
Lee	FB	Sorrells

Score by periods:

W. & L.	7	0	14	0—21
A. & M.	0	0	0	0— 0

Summary: Officials—Referee, Gass, of Lehigh; umpire, Hegarty, of Georgetown; head linesman, Henderson, of West Virginia Wesleyan.

Time of periods, 15 minutes each.

Scoring: W. & L., touchdowns, Sorrells, Johnson, Wadsworth; goal from touchdown, Young, 3.

Substitutions: W. & L.—Bethel for Ignaco, Crile for Cromwell, Paxton for Sorrells, Wadsworth for Graham, Ignaso for Bethel, Kehoe for Paxton, Gardner for Pierrotti, Adams for Kehoe, Tille for Crile. A. & M.—Spivey for Lawrence.

PENNSYLVANIA SENDS THE CORNELL ELEVEN TO DEFEAT

Philadelphia, Nov. 30.—After an interval of three years the University of Pennsylvania returned to the winning end of the score in the annual Thanksgiving Day game here today, defeating Cornell before a holiday crowd, which taxed the capacity of Franklin Field, 23 to 3.

Pennsylvania outplayed its rival in every department of the game. The Cornell line was unable to hold the rushing Quaker forwards and two of Pennsylvania's three touchdowns came as the result of blocked kicks.

A poor kick off by Matthews, the Pennsylvania captain, enabled Cornell to get within scoring distance early in the game when Quarterback Shiverick made Cornell's only tally with a drop kick from the 38-yard line. Pennsylvania scored a touchdown in the same period and in the next period standing near the side lines Fullback Berry dropped a goal from the field from the 23-yard mark. Pennsylvania's other two touchdowns came in the third periods.

Wake Forest, N. C., Nov. 30.—The juniors triumphed over the freshmen Tuesday night in the championship basketball game, annexing the title as class champions by virtue of their 19 to 13 victory.

THEATRICAL

"Casey at the Bat," the Triangle-De-Wolf Hopper comedy to be seen at the Grand theater today, tells in picture from the story of the famous baseball poem which Hopper has recited from countless stages and at innumerable social gatherings since it first appeared, more than a quarter of a century ago.

It will be recalled that Casey, the invincible slugger of the Mudville baseball team, came to bat one afternoon in the ninth inning of a close game with a rival nine and, when a hit was needed to win, ingloriously struck out, leaving the entire populace of Mudville gasping with amazement and drenched in gloom.

The poem does not reveal what untoward circumstance it was that caused Casey to fall down so grievously at a crucial moment. This mystery the picture promises to clear up.

Starring the inimitable Broadway comedian in the title role of Casey, this offering should be one of the very biggest features of the week, produced by the peerless David W. Griffith and today's offering at the Grand.

"The Shielding Shadow" Today

The latest great chapter of the superserial by Pathe, "The Shielding Shadow," occupying top position on today's great bill of movies at the Bijou, furnishes more new thrills and surprises for the followers of this mammoth serial production in which five great stars of the photoplay and stage, headed by Grace Darmond, Leon Barry and others, are making the grandest triumph of their entire career.

RUTH THOMPSON.
Dainty Dancing Star of the Comic Opera Production of "Gypsy Love" at the Academy December 6th.

Grace Darmond, the beautiful leading lady of Pathe, is indeed an illumination to any photoplay, and in "The Shielding Shadow" she is every week winning new laurels and displaying more and more marvelous delineations which surprise even her most ardent followers. Leon Barry in the role of the villain is marking a new epoch in the screen delineation of sinister roles, and Ralph Kellard as the hero of the photoplay, in a role of mystery is a tower of strength.

Joe Belmont and Ora Carew display their greatest comedy vein in "Wings and Wheels," a mammoth two reel Triangle-Keystone comedy which is also on today's bill at the Bijou. It is a rip-roaring snort from beginning to end, with the greatest amount of slapstick comedy ever seen in a similar picture. This makes it a great double attraction for the Friday crowds today.

"Gypsy Love."

An engagement of unusual importance as a gala holiday event is announced for next Wednesday at the Academy of Music. The special attraction, is Andreas Dippel's own production of the internationally famous romantic operette, "Gypsy Love," written by Franz Lehar of "Merry Widow" fame.

The high expectations in respect to "Gypsy Love" of the Academy management certainly are justified by what is known here concerning it and the sponsorship. As guarantee for the standard of the opera there stands the record of complete conquest of the great metropolitan audiences when the piece was first produced in America; and the transcontinental tour following established it in nation-wide popularity. In all those engagements, from the first night in America, on the famous young Russian tenor, Arthur Albro, played the leading role. He continues to head the cast, sharing stellar honors with Finita De Soria, a young Spanish prima donna, whose rare beauty almost as much as her wonderful voice made her a Broadway favorite almost over night last summer when she arrived there from Malaga to head the cast of a great Spanish opera. All the other names of the long cast are of artists well and favorably known to New York. The opera comes here in a production not two weeks old, a complete new investitude of scenery, effects and wardrobe having been provided for it. A great chorus that really can sing as well as look well and dance agilely is among the promises that are topped off with the announcement that the big organization includes a complete orchestra of experienced New York musicians. As a general guarantee of quality throughout every department is the fact that Mr. Dippel, who is an impresario of international fame, personally directed every detail of production. The prices will range from 50 cents to $2. The tickets will go on sale Monday at Elvington's at 9 a. m.

To Give Away Baby Tonight.

Tonight's the night a real live baby is to be given away at the Victoria theatre, and needless to say this popular playhouse will be packed to the doors, in order to see who is going to be the lucky "papa" or the lucky "mamma." For it is said this baby is no pig, dog, or other animal, but is a real live baby of good parentage, and eleven months old. The baby's parents were killed in a railway accident and although it is to be given away to the holder of the lucky number, whoever wins the baby must be a reliable party, and promise to take proper care of the baby.

Richards, the "Wizard", and company, will offer an entirely new programme, commencing with today's matinee. The feature of the show being "The Tub of Diogenes," besides a great many other amazing whirlwind sensations, and an abundance of clean, wholesome comedy, mystery and novelty. Richards has already proven himself to be the greatest Magician and entertainer that has ever appeared in a local theatre, and has been playing to the largest crowds that have been inside of the Victoria theatre this season. Those who have not already seen one of these wonderful performances, should not miss this last opportunity, as tomorrow will be the last day of Richards' engagement in Wilmington this season.

The Smoke of the U. S. A.

Today is the First of December, and we suggest that you get in touch with the early shopping movement.

There are many good reasons why you should shop early this year. Good goods will be much scarcer, the choice numbers will go early—and you will be rushed at the last moment to provide a suitable gift, when you could have made your selection early. Therefore, shop early and save all future troubles.

Responsible Parties May Open a Thirty Day Account Here

A number of Wilmington women have opened up a monthly charge account with us. Have you?

A charge account is a convenience to most people who can meet their obligations monthly. Our terms are the same to all: "Thirty Days; Prompt Pay." Our goods are priced the same way, this being strictly a "one-priced store."

A number of people in the city have commended us on our Credit system, and are delighted to see that it is working out satisfactory. Many doubted the wisdom of this Prompt Pay system before we adopted it, but it will be only a short while until it will be used by other progressive merchants. The cut price system and the slow pay accounts have been the ruin of more business people than most any other cause, and it will be only a question of time until the public become aware of this fact. We want your patronage, with the understanding that you will always get fair and square treatment here.

TO REFOREST ESTATE OF STATE SANATORIUM.

Two Hundred Acres Will be Planted in Long Leaf Pines.

Santorium, N. C., Nov. 30.—The State Santorium has undertaken to re-forest 200 of its 1,200 acres in long leaf pine. To this end the co-operation of the University of North Carolina has been secured and the State forester, Mr. J. S. Holmes, has been put in charge. He has already done some planting and hopes in the next few weeks to finish up this feature of the work. It is Mr. Holmes' plan also to demonstrate the ability to prevent forest fires, which is absolutely essential to the reforestation with long leaf pine or any other growth.

The long leaf pine was at one time a fortune to the Sand Hill section, but since the time when the land was shorn of its long leaf pine for ship building timber, this section has been considered almost worthless. However, in the past few years it has been ascertained that anything in the way of trucking, fruit growing and farming can now be grown with profit in this sand hill section. One man last year made $7,000 net on a 12-acre peach orchard.

It is possible, thinks Mr. Holmes, that the long leaf pine can be made the most valuable crop. All that is necessary is to plant the seed and prevent the forest fires. It is his opinion that within 20 years, the Sand Hill section will again have a merchantable crop of timber, provided forest fires can be kept out.

SEVENTY-FIVE HIGH SCHOOLS IN DECLAMATION CONTESTS

Their Representatives Now at Trinity for Big Annual Event.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Trinity College, N. C., Nov. 30.—Seventy-five high school boys, representing as many schools in this State, Virginia, and South Carolina, arrived here on this afternoon trains for the annual declamation contest, which is held under the auspices of the 9019, a patriotic and scholarship society, which takes place tomorrow evening in Craven Memorial Hall. The boys were met at the station by a committee of students and were taken to their rooms on the campus.

At 7:30 they met in the Hesperian hall and drew for places on the preliminary which takes place tomorrow morning when ten of the number will be selected to compete in the final contest for a beautiful $20-medal, offered annually by the 9019. The entire representation will be taken through some of the factories and to other places of interest in the city tomorrow afternoon and after the contests in the evening a reception will be given in honor of the representatives.

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 29. — Irrespective of denominations, the people of Wadesboro are rejoiced that the conference has seen fit to return Rev. A. W. Plyler to the pastorate of the Methodist church here. Mr. Plyler has made warm friends among the citizens of this county, and it is hoped he will be permitted to stay here the full time allotted to ministers of his faith.

TOP O' THE MORNING.

We gain power out of every duty done. We miss power by every duty left undone. The faithful soul ,by doing one duty after another, thus comes at length to have reserves of power that are simply inexplicable to the shirker, who has steadily lost power with every duty shirked.
—GREAT THOUGHTS.

The light which costs nothing—daylight.

Too much hindsight keeps people bringing up the rear.

There is always some way to get there if we will only try.

We must be up and doing if we expect to keep on chewing.

Resignation is better than anything else that cannot possibly mend a matter.

Well, did Thanksgiving Day leave you better off or worse off than it found you?

'Only 31 days till 1917! May the new year be one of peace for this old world! It has had woe enough for more than two years.

The more we do for Wilmington and her tributary territory, the greater will be the opportunities for every man in this city.

The first daylight saving congress is soon to be held at Philadelphia. We are going to watch it to see if it will meet every morning at sunrise.

New York is tearing down Colonel Roosevelt's birthplace, No. 28 East Twentieth street. New York must feel as if she is through with Teddy.

New Hanover—the county with a macadam belt line and a network of modern highways. The plan now is to cross-section all highways with more highways.

Those who have their Christmas money in hand should do their Christmas shopping early so as to relieve the burden of the salespeople when those go to do their shopping who have their Christmas money yet to get.

Dr. Wiley's professional opinion is that science will find a way to stop the chemical changes that produce old age. If science will only hurry up, it will have millions of friends who want time turned backward in its flight.

Why have forebodings about economic conditions following peace in Europe? We withstood the shock of war. Certainly we need not dread the halcyon days of peace. "Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war."

"There is a silver lining to every cloud." We recall that Longfellow wrote something like this: "After clouds and wind and rain The shining sun comes out again." Indeed it is true that "hope springs eternal in the human breast."

The United States Steel Corporation has added $5 more per ton to the price of steel rails. Simultaneously the wages of 200,000 of its employes have been increased 10 per cent, which, it is said, will add nearly $20,000,000 to the corporation's payroll. All that will be handed down to the railroads and they will distribute it among the millions of people who support the transportation systems of the country.

Whole lots of things ought to be boycotted. One of them is the foolish expenditure of money for pleasure by those who can't afford it. Another is the habit of blowing in money by sports who will need it when they get "old and only in the way." We forget the name of the author of those poetic words to the effect that "the trouble with many people is that they are leading an automobile life on a wheelbarrow salary."

EXTRAVAGANCE AND THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

People are often brought to their sense by emergencies, so in this one which has brought us face to face with the serious part of the living problem we have an opportunity to learn something to our advantage. Our pockets are being pinched for the necessities of living and we are boycotting and blaming the other fellow. No doubt many of them are to blame, but what is the matter with us? Had we not better take advantage of this opportunity to make a little self examination and find out to just what extent our lack of method and system and economics is partly or largely to blame? Along that line, here is a Baltimore Sun editorial which it is worth while for everybody to read and re-read with a personal application:

"As a method of reducing the price of eggs the proposed boycott against that product of the haughty hen is economically sound. Although other factors of minor importance do enter into the cause of high prices, the relation between supply and demand is the chief factor. If concerted action on the part of housekeepers of the country does reduce materially the demand for eggs, then the price will go down, no matter whether there is a real scarcity or only an artificial scarcity due to the fact that the owners are withholding them from the markets. But to amount to much, probably, the boycott will have to extend over a wide area and be maintained for some time.

"After all the actions of the speculators have been discounted there remains in the unprecedented demand for foodstuffs a logical explanation of the present high prices. Europe is buying more of our products than ever before. So is South America. An increased foreign demand, with the accompanying rise in prices, usually has the effect of checking home consumption; but that has not proved to be the case in the present instance, because the increased wages paid to labor and the great prosperity of the farming class and the general good business conditions have placed a large proportion of our people in position to buy even more freely than ordinarily. Those who suffer most are the people of the salaried class, the ones with fixed incomes and wage-earners whose wages have not been increased. From them must come such action as may help to ameliorate the situation.

"And while boycotts and parcel post extensions and food substitutes and other remedies are being discussed one other thing should not be forgotten, and that is the waste that obtains in many American households. Foreigners coming to this country have always been scandalized by the extravagance in evidence here. They have compared normal American conditions with normal conditions in their own lands and have been amazed at the contrast. But the war has forced unbelievable further economies in all the belligerent countries, and if there could be a contrast of the conditions as they exist today it would be a still more amazing one. In this week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post is an article detailing the measures of economy that have been enforced in England through the government conducted advertising campaign there. People who have never done without servants before are doing without them now. People who formerly used motorcars exclusively are now riding in buses or walking. It has become a discreditable thing to wear a new frock or eat a gourmand's meal. Working girls have abandoned their pretty fineries and wear garments made for strictly utilitarian purposes. A thousand sorts of economies that would have been thought impossible a year or two ago have been effected. Can America learn nothing in this connection from the war-stricken countries of Europe?

"There are a variety of reasons for the extravagance of the people of the United States. Love of luxury is one, though not the chief one. The desire to appear well before one's neighbors is another. Thoughtlessness is a third. Men patronize imposing establishments of one sort or another when more modest ones would answer every requirement. Men and women feel that they have to live in fashionable neighborhoods and entertain on the same scale as their neighbors. Housekeepers use the telephone ab lib. and fail to scrutinize their bills, and then wonder at the tremendous cost of maintaining their households. What is needed is a radical and general change of viewpoint. If some magician could wave his wand and make economy as fashionable a thing as extravagance, could make that individual in a community who set the best example of economical living the most respected and most sought-after member of it, he would do more for the country. He would do more to reduce the high cost of living than all the boycotts and government prosecutions that could be devised.

"And if the American people could only be brought to see this, they would make of their present trouble a great opportunity."

If we learn something during this emergency, it will be worth the high cost of living. "No man liveth unto himself" is true gospel and it is just as true that no man or woman is extravagant unless it be at the expense of somebody else. The bill has to be footed by somebody and it can be traced right back to the toilers. Extravagance of the few comes out of the many, and when it gets to be burdensome the foundation of all production is rocked.

Isn't it an indisputable fact that we want to live at ease and live high, and yet expect others to keep us up by selling us their products at low prices? Now and then the tables are turned and we are made to pay for our extravagance. There are those who take advantage of the extravagance of others to make them pay dearly for what they buy. This seems to be a time when the sellers see their opportunity to get some extravagant prices from extravagant people and they have carried it to such a limit that they are about to kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

The worst of it is that the extravagance of society in general brings about a distressing result that falls upon the rich and poor as well. Some can afford it while others cannot. It is true beyond question that the extravagance of a people or of a government sooner or later falls on the whole country. There is a limit to it and then comes the result.

THE NEW YORK AND FLORIDA SPECIAL

A thrill is felt all the way from the wintry North to the Sunny South at the bare mention that the Atlantic Coast Line's "New York and Florida Special" will soon be in operation for the fast approaching winter tourist season. No matter how extremely cold it is in New York, the elite of the big town hovers there for the gaities of the Christmas and New Year holiday season, ever notable for the elaborate society functions of the creme de la creme of the great American metropolis. Immediately thereafter the tourist exodus begins and away the town folks speed for the Land of Flowers.

Because the horrible war in Europe closed that continent to tourists last year, the Florida tourist season last winter was the greatest ever known, but the Coast Line management anticipates that the approaching season, to begin in January, will exceed all bounds. Already "The Standard Railroad of the South" has completed all the arrangements for operating its magnificent trains to Florida. These are modern steel trains, the ultima thule in elegance and luxuriousness and the sine qua non in service and comfort. That gives away the secret of the immense popularity of the tourist train service of the Atlantic Coast Line with those who appreciate the extreme limit in the refinement of railway travel.

There is another very patent reason why the tourists patronize the trains de luxe of this splendidly equipped Southern railway. The operation of the trains marks the top notch of efficiency, so plainly indicated during the 1916 tourist season, Janary 3 to April 10, inclusive, when the record for passenger service approached almost the 100 per cent. mark. Of the 193 trips, North and South, made by the "New York and Florida Special," 187 of them were perfect as to schedule performance for the entire trips.

Indeed that is a marvelous record, and yet the speed and comfort combined with the matchless guest service aboard makes this the ideal rail trip of America. Moreover, the "Florida and West Indian" and the "Palmetto Limited" trains, all of the same character in superbness of equipment, both earned a most creditable record for punctuality of schedules through the season. Verily, the Atlantic Coast Line has highly specialized in the elegance and safety of its passenger service between the North and the South.

LAND VALUES IN THE SOUTH.

Mr. J. W. Purdom, Jr., B. S. A., Pensacola, Fla., contributes an article to the Manufacturers Record of November 30 outlining the various reasons why productive lands of the South are cheap compared with lands elsewhere in the United States. Mr. Purdom points out that lands are cheap in the South because they are plentiful and not because they are not productive. He bases his statement on a well known principle, which he states as follows: "As is well known, the prices of any commodity is fixed by the available supply and the demand for such commodity." He then goes on to say that in the South, as was recently the case in the West, the available supply of land is greater than the demand.

That is why lands are comparatively cheap in the Southern states, but the principal reason is that few people conceive of the possibilities of our lands. Their farm value is measured by our old one-crop system, resulting in a farm wealth far below that of most states in the Union. Nevertheless, Mr. Purdom declares that lands in the South are rapidly increasing in value, though they are very low for the reason that their productive value has not been generally appreciated throughout other sections of the country. It is the fault of our people who make the record for the land by their poor system of agriculture. They are improving in that particular, however, hence our lands are getting a better reputation abroad. We ought to see to it that the whole country understands the real productive value of our lands. The possibilities in land in this section have only recently been demonstrated. The results achieved are almost incredible.

A London editor expresses alarm because he thinks girls are becoming ugly. We certainly must admit that there is an alarming state of affairs in North Carolina. It is getting so that the girls are all so pretty that it is hard to tell which one of them is the prettiest. It can't be done.

WE WANT MORE FACTORIES!

To the Editor of The Star:

A child wishing for the stars—a Micawber "waiting for something to turn up"—are no more visionary, more possessed with illusions, than is a community that says "we want more factories," and bolsters up this generic expression with an assertion of the same tenor to the effect that all advantages necessary for the successful operation of manufacturing industries of all kinds are to be had here for the asking.

For the encouragement of manufacturing enterprises, it would seem that the essentials are embraced in three words, viz: Co-operation, Concentration, Cash. The first step towards this desideratum should be in concentrating upon some specific manufacturing enterprise—ascertaining in detail what are the requirements contributive to successful operation; accessibility and cost of raw material; cost of operating plant and marketing product.

By way of illustration: On the banks of the Cape Fear river between Wilmington and its source are thousands of cords of poplar and cottonwood—the ideal wood for fine paper making—which can be delivered at a factory dock, in or near this city, at a price much less than that paid for the same at Northern paper mills.

Suppose, for instance, that upon investigation this is verified and the energies of our commercial bodies are concentrated upon the acquisition of a pulp mill, with a paper mill, or an indurated-ware factory in connection, if desirable. It would only be necessary to convince those interested in this class of manufactures that our claims could be substantiated.

It were, indeed, futile for any community to claim the possession of unusual advantages for all kinds of manufacturing industries unless the claim can be backed by the existence of enterprises whose success was the result of local environment. The proposition invites the query: "Why, if you have all these manufacturing advantages, do not your capitalists avail themselves of the opportunities that you are giving away? Certainly it would demonstrate the courage of your convictions, if enterprises were organized by home people and outside capital invited to participate in stock investments, instead of expecting strangers to originate the industries, as well as finance and operate them."

Go to it! Even an electric button will not acomplish anything unless pushed. GEORGE P. COTCHETT.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Wilmington Star gently raps us with the intimation that Columbus county's big potato was not grown in one season, and thereby The Star shows remarkable intuition. That 'tater was grown in good old Columbus county earth, the richest in Eastern Carolina. —Whiteville News Reporter.

To an outsider who has not been here very long and who knows very little about how much it would take, it looks as if there was enough timber in the swamps at White Marsh to keep a paper mill running for about a hundred years. We will give all of our holdings in the aforesaid swamp, which takes a cipher to express it in print, to Wilmington if they will build the mill and thereby decrease the cost of our print paper. The attention of the Wilmington Star is gently called to this munificent offer.—Whiteville News Reporter.

Short crops are the main cause of the abnormal prices of grain and other foodstuffs. Of course, the war in Europe is a contributing cause, as so much of that portion of the world's population has been turned from productive to destructive pursuits, armies being wasteful consumers. But that influence is minor, not controlling. American farmers are preparing to seed larger areas in cereals for next year, and the result of a bumper harvest will be to bring prices down from an excessive, but not below a remunerative standard. An embargo, however, would have the effect of discouraging the farmers from efforts to increase production, for they would rightly conclude a heavy surplus, coincident with prohibition of its shipment abroad, would bring about a slump in the domestic market depriving them of all profit. The pendulum would swing as far below a reasonable level as it is now above. Violent interference with the operation of the natural law of supply and demand would breed new troubles instead of curing those we have.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Mayor Murphy comes back from the civic gathering at Springfield positively cheesy over the showing that Greensboro made in comparison with the most progressive cities of the United States. In such things as milk and meat inspection, and the attention paid to public health, he had the pleasure of astonish some of the representatives of Western and Northern cities by showing them that at least one town in the South is in line with the best thought of the day. The mayor has good reason to gloat, and in doing so he is going to have the enthusiastic assistance of the Daily News, as we thing he will admit having had it in putting those ideas into practice. However, we are going to do a little gloating of our own over a matter that perhaps the mayor did not think it in good taste to mention himself. That gathering at Springfield was of the elite. It was composed of those men, from every section of the United States, who have studied hardest the problems of the city, and those most anxious to learn what their conclusions were, in order that they might get on to a thing or two for their own towns. And right there—up in the Amen corner, we have reason to believe—were the mayor and the city superintendent of schools of Greensboro. That is the thing we consider most significant—not the fact that Greensboro has adopted some progressive ideas, but the proof that she is on the lookout for more, even to the point of sending to Massachusetts to get them.—Greensboro News.

Here in Greensboro, where we depend, for the most part, upon the surrounding country rather than on the cold storage plant for our eggs and butter, the housewives have not yet felt the necessity for a "strike," notwithstanding the fact that the present prices are paid under protest and call for explanation. The retail merchant is not to blame, and the farmer is not to blame for demanding all that his crop will bring, but the pinch is felt, nevertheless in many a hitherto well filled larder. And the question comes, can Greensboro do anything to help? Would it result in any real benefit to cut down the revenues of one class of citizens for the benefit of another? One thing that Guilford farmers and Greensboro merchants can do in order to keep supplies at home, is to not ship eggs or produce away from town as long as the local men are willing to pay the price offered elsewhere. If the demand at the North is such as to keep up the prices, make it possible at least for Greensboro to have first chance based on those prices. With the millions of eggs in cold storage in Chicago it has been difficult in Greensboro the past few weeks to obtain them at any price. The cause has been that our farmers have allowed shippers to come in and buy up their stocks at the expense of the home market, which must take the leavings of these enterprising middle men. While not wanting to seem selfish nor provincial we are going to urge our country friends to exercise the more neighborly spirit of reciprocity and see to it that our home people are supplied before listening to a proposition to send more eggs to Chicago, to be locked up in cold storage while children cry for them and invalids perish for lack of suitable nourishment. The question is not one entirely of commercialism, but of common humanity as set forth in the Golden Rule.—Greensboro Record.

WILMINGTON LEADS AT TRINITY.

Has Largest Number of Students and First City Club.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Trinity College, N. C., Nov. 30.—Wilmington claims the honor for having the largest number of students in college this year and the additional distinction of having organized the first city club ever formed at the college. There are now a dozen students on the campus from that city. Charlotte has the next largest number of students here. The officers of the Wilmington club are: V. C. Hall, president; E. M. Thompson, vice president; H. K. King, secretary. Miss Gladys Price is the only girl member of the group.

CHIEF EVENTS WON BY ROBERTSON AND STANLY

Successful Thanksgiving Tourney is Held at Country Club.

Annual Events is Largely Attended and Three Highest Scores Break All Previous Records for 36-Hole Events—Entrants.

Mr. William G. Robertson, with a gross score of 173, and Dr. J. W. Stanly, with a net score of 74, were the winners of the two chief events in one of the most successful Thanksgiving golf tournaments ever held at the Cape Fear Country Club, which was held yesterday morning and afternoon. The first prize, a copper cup, was won by Dr. Stanly, while Mr. Robertson will be awarded a gold medal.

Although the weather was not as sunny as it has been on some previous occasions, it did not interfere with the golfers. The tourney was attended by more than 150 members of the club and their friends, including a large number of ladies. One of the most remarkable features of the tourney was the fact that the three highest scores broke all previous 36-hole records.

At the conclusion of the match a splendid oyster roast and basket luncheon was served by the ladies of the club. The menu contained all the delicacies of the season and was greatly enjoyed by every one.

The handicap sweepstakes, which took place in the afternoon, resulted as follows: First prize of golf balls won by Mr. W. G. Robertson with gross score of 83, handicap 5, making net score of 78; second was won by Mr. C. E. Taylor with 58 gross, handicap 5, net 80, and third prize by Dr. J. W. Stanly, with 93 gross, handicap 11, net 81.

There were 35 entrants in the first event, which was an 18-hole handicap match, starting at 10:15 A. M. The first prize, a copper cup, was won by Dr. J. W. Stanly, with a net score of 76; the second and third prizes of golf balls were won by Mr. E. C. Hines and Mr. G. G. Thomas with net scores of 77 and 78.

	Gross	Hdp	Net
A. B. Skelding	99	18	81
R. Hunt	98	16	82
A. S. Williams	112	12	100
T. H. Wright	119	28	91
T. W. Davis	128	24	104
J. W. Stanly	87	11	76
C. E. Taylor	90	5	85
W. A. French	94	11	83
J. W. Carmichael	109	8	101
W. Buckner	96	13	83

E. A. Metts	103	18	85
A. M. Thomson	101	21	80
Wm. G. Robertson	90	9	85

The second event, at 2:15 in the afternoon, was a 36-hole scratch match, consisting of 18 holes played in the morning and 18 additional in the afternoon. This was limited to the 16 players making the lowest scores in the morning contest, and was won by Mr. Wm. G. Robertson with a gross score of 173. A medal will be awarded Mr. Robertson.

Second and third places were won by Mr. C. E. Taylor and Dr. J. W. Stanly with gross scores of 175 and 179. It is right remarkable that these three scores broke all previous 36-hole records of the course. The other scores in this event were as follows: W. A. French, 191; J. W. Carmichael, 207; W. Buckner, 192; B. H. Bridgers, 207; R. H. Bellamy, 200; S. B. Ives, 185; E. A. Metts, 204.

FLAMES DESTROY MORTGAGE WHILE CONGREGATION SINGS

Members of Bladen Street Methodist Church Have Thanksgiving Celebrat

Gathered around a bonfire near their church last night, the congregation of Bladen Street Methodist church closed their special Thanksgiving service by hurling into the flames the mortgage and papers heretofore of indebtedness held against the church.

Through the untiring efforts of the members, divided into two teams, and their friends, all indebtedness of the church was paid before the service last night, and this made it a double Thanksgiving celebration. The services were opened by the singing of the hymn, "Crown Him Lord of All," by the congregation.

This was followed by a prayer, after which another hymn was sung, and the pastor, Rev. J. P. Pate, made an address. Mr. Pate paid high tribute to the friends of the church and the members of the two teams who had worked so faithfully in their efforts to rid the church of the burden of debt.

At the conclusion of the pastor's address, Lay Leader E. H. Hardison made a brief reply, in which he, too, lauded the team members for their loyal efforts. He touched on the inspiration and encouragement that had been received from the efforts and messages of the pastor. The services, or rather that part of it that was held indoors, closed with the singing of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee". The congregation then adjourned to the bonfire on the nearby corner, where the entire assemblage joined in singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," and the flames destroyed the last vestige of their indebtedness.

The interior of the church was beautifully decorated, this work having been in the hands of a committee composed of Mrs. E. H. Hardison, Mrs. E. H. Hall, Mrs. C. Albro and Mrs. J. J. Rann.

New Rector Will Preach.

Richmond Times-Dispatch: "Rev. William E. Cox, who comes to Richmond this week from Wilmington, N. C. as rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter, will preach the sermon at the annual communion service of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which will be held at 8 o'clock on Friday evening at St. Thomas's church, Winter Park. The service will mark the first public appearance of Mr. Cox in Richmond."

THANKSGIVING DAY QUIETLY OBSERVED

Weather Man Contributes Gloomy Skies for Day of Praise

Practically Every Church in the City Held Special Services—Inmates of County Home and Stockade Remembered.

Beneath threatening clouds and occasional drizzles of rain, Wilmington celebrated Thanksgiving yesterday. Some thirty thousand people gathered around dinner tables in the city, and innumerable turkeys passed into history with the conclusion of the meals.

All business houses and shops with the exception of the post office, drug stores and a few others were closed. Many took advantage of the holiday to try their luck with gun or rod, and as many more sought the quiet of the country to spend their day of thanks. Moving picture and vaudeville houses did a rushing business, and numerous pedestrians were noted on the streets in spite of the foul weather.

The sunrise Thanksgiving service in the First Baptist church was well attended in spite of the early hour, as was the one at the same time in Immanuel Presbyterian church, conducted under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society.

Practically every other church in the city held special services at some time during the day, and as a rule they were well attended. The day was fittingly observed at the county home as well as at the stockade, where the county prisoners are housed. Considerable interest was manifested in the bulletins received at The Morning Star office of the Virginia-Carolina and Washington & Lee-A. & M. football games.

There was little or no law breaking during the day, the police blotter showing the smallest number of arrests that have been recorded in some time for a week day. Throughout the day a Sabbath-like quiet seemed to hover over the entire city.

The members of the Wilmington Hunt Club hied themselves away to the chase in the wee small hours that come just before the dawn, and spent the day in pursuit of the elusive Reynard. The Cape Fear Golf Club tournament furnished amusement for many of the lovers of this sport.

While the weather man did not contribute a perfect day for the occasion, he did furnish one that was an exact replica of some of the story book descriptions of an autumn day. The skies were as gloomy as the ones described by Edgar Allen Poe in his tale of the "Fall of the House of Usher" and where the dripping rain fell on the banks of dead leaves in numerous yards, it was almost as melancholy.

One of the most beautiful features of the day's observance in the city, was the donations given to the poor. It was indeed a day of alms giving as well as of thanksgiving, and more than one family had reason to be thankful when they looked back over the events of the day and what it had brought them.

In field and woodland rang the intermittent crack of gun and rifle, denoting that many devotees of the art of Nimrod were afield in the pursuit of pleasure, happiness and recreation. Market dealers report that their sales of turkeys and other accessories were large, and there was no sign of the boycott that affected some of the Northern cities.

The convicts within the stockade celebrated the day with a day of recreation and did ample justice to the sumptuous dinner served them by Superintendent Rivenbark.

INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. EDWARD REGISTER PASSES AWAY

William Register, Aged Two Months, Died at Home of Parents Here.

William Register, two-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Register passed away yesterday morning at 6 o'clock at the home of his parents, No. 507 South Fifth street. The death of the little one came as a great shock to his parents, who will have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. He had been ill for some time, but it was not thought that the end was so near.

Funeral service will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from the residence. The services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Interment will be at Bellevue cemetery.

SOCIAL SERVICES TONIGHT.

Important Reports Will Also be Made at Trinity Methodist Church.

Thanksgiving services will be conducted at Trinity Methodist church tonight at 8 o'clock. Mr. Robert Ruark will be the speaker of the occasion, and several important reports will be made.

At the conclusion of Mr. Ruark's address, Mr. J. S. Williams will make a report on the payment of new lot fund and Mr. H. E. O'Keef, the church treasurer, will also make his annual report. This will be followed by the report of the pastor, Rev. W. V. McRae, on the state of the church.

Mr. Williams' report is expected to show that the new lot is either paid for or provided for; Mr. O'Keef's is expected to show all church funds provided for, while Mr. McRae's is expected to show some 100 accessions to the church during the year. The meeting will not last over 45 minutes, it is stated, and will be followed by the fourth quarterly conference. An offering will be taken for the Methodist orphanage.

STEALS IN SHADOW OF PRISON

Polly Wright Resumed Criminal Operations Immediately on Release

When Polly Wright, colored, made ready to leave the stockade yesterday morning, it seems that she decided that the county owed her something for the days that she had spent within the New Hanover retreat for the wayward, so she is said to have removed a number of article of wearing apparel, along with a peck of potatoes, from their resting place, and started to depart. Superintendent Rivenbark happened to get wise to Polly's game, however, with the result that she spent the day in the police station, and will face the Recorder this morning with a fair chance of going back to the county bastile.

NEW RECTOR OF ST. JOHN'S

Rev. R. E. Gribben, who arrives from Atlanta today to assume the rectorship of St. John's Episcopal church, succeeding Rev. W. E. Cox.

TO ASSUME CHARGE TODAY

Rev. R. E. Gribben Will Arrive in Wilmington at Noon and Take Charge of St. John's Parish.

Rev. R. E. Gribben, the new rector of St. John's Episcopal church, will arrive in the city from Atlanta at noon today, and will assume formal charge of the affairs of the parish immediately. Rev. W. E. Cox, the retiring rector, left last night for Richmond, Va., where he becomes rector of the Church of the Holy Covenant. Mrs. Cox will remain in the city until next week.

Rev. and Mrs. Gribben will make their home at the residence of Mr. J. Hicks Bunting, No. 208 North Third street, until Monday, when they will occupy the parish manse on Red Cross street. Mr. Gribben will conduct the morning prayer and service at St. John's Sunday morning.

The new rector of St. John's is of Irish extraction and was born February 21, 1887, at Blacksville, S. C., where his mother and sisters still reside. His education was received at The Citadel, where he was graduated with the degree of B. S. in 1906, being one of the two senior orators at commencement; the College of Charleston, where he received the degree of B. A. in 1909; the General Theological Seminary of New York, where he grauated in May, 1912, and the Harvard Summer School.

The first two years of Mr. Gribben's life after leaving college in 1906 were spent in teaching in the schools of Blacksburg, S. C., and Rock Hill, S. C. In June after his graduation from the theological seminary he was made deacon at Grace church, Charleston, where he began his work as assistant minister. On May 9, 1913, he was advanced to the priesthood and placed in charge of St. Peter's-by-the-Sea Mission, which is located just outside of the United States Navy yard. While he was in charge here a combination church and parish house was built.

Mr. Gribben was called to St. Luke's church in Atlanta, Ga., as assistant minister on January 1, 1915. In the Diocese of Atlanta, he has been chairman of the Social Service Committee, and a member of the Permanent Committee on the State of the Church.

While at Harvard, where he completed a course in abnormal psychology, Mr. Gribben was in charge of the Appleton Chapel for several days. In 1914 he delivered the baccalaureate sermon at The Citadel commencement. He is married and has one son. Mrs. Gribben was formerly Miss Emma Manigault Jenkins, of Young Island, S. C.

MASTER OF HOUNDS INJURED BY FALL FROM BUCKING HORSE

Mr. Sam J. Davis Sustains Injured Shoulder on Fox Chase.

Just after starting on the annual Thanksgiving fox chase of the Wilmington Hunt Club, Mr. Sam J. Davis, master of hounds, was thrown from a bucking horse a short distance from the club kennels at 6:30 yesterday morning, and sustained painful injuries in the ribs and left shoulder blade.

He was placed in a buggy by other members of the party and brought to his residence at No. 8 Wrightsville avenue, where Dr. B. J. Willingham was called, and his injuries treated. Dr. Willingham stated last night that there was no indication of any complications that might result seriously at the time he examined the injured man.

According to statements of those with Mr. Davis at the time of the accident, he was riding a short distance behind the party, with his feet freed from the stirrups. The horse was unaccustomed to the chase, and when Mr. Davis' spurs touched his flanks he began to buck. The horse's plunging prevented the rider from regaining the stirrup, and also brought the spurs again in contact with the animal's sides, causing him to continue rearing. Mr. Davis was unable to retain his seat in the saddle, and fell heavily to the ground, striking on his left shoulder.

Juniors Elect Officers.

At the regular meeting of Jeff Davis Council, No. 63, Junior Order United American Mechanics, held last night, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Councilor, A. J. Krahnke; warden, Geo. T. Grotgen; inside sentinel, John Lanier; outside sentinel, J. F. Applewhite; chaplain, S. G. Nelms; trustees, Woodus Kellum, James A. Kelly, B. F. Brittain, Jr.

GEN. WM. L. LONDON DEAD AT HOME IN PITTSBORO

Was Related to Prominent Citizens of Wilmington Section.

Prominent Citizen of Chatham County, Confederate Veteran and Brother of Maj. H. A. London, Passed Away Early Yesterday.

News of the death of Gen. William Lord London, a brother of Major H. A. London, which occurred at his home in Pittsboro, N. C., at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning, was received in Wilmington by long distance telephone early yesterday by his sister-in-law, Mrs. T. C. James. He had been in good health up until a few weeks ago, but had failed steadily since.

At the time of his death General London was commander of the Second Brigade, North Carolina United Confederate Veterans. In the War Between the States he was a gallant and efficient officer. Since the war the same qualities that endeared him to his comrades in arms have distinguished him as a citizen, and will cause his death to be mourned as a loss alike severe to his State, his family and his friends.

General London was a citizen of Chatham county and a native of Pittsboro, where he was born 79 years ago. He was a member of a family occupying a prominent position in the State. He was related to several of the pioneer families of Wilmington and this section of the State, and was well known in this city, where he visited on a number of occasions.

According to one of his comrades in arms, a resident of Wilmington, General London, who was serving on Maj. General Grimes' staff at the time, had the distinction of carrying the last order for a charge at Appomatox Court House. The order was from General Grimes to Brig. Gen. Wm. R. Cox and directed him to lead his men in final effort to break the cordon in blue which had surrounded Lee's soldiers. The message was delivered but the charge was not, as it was afterwards countermanded and the surrender took place.

General London was a successful business man, being head of the large mercantile establishment at Pittsboro of W. L. London & Son. He was also president of the Bank of Pittsboro and secretary-treasurer of the Odell Manufacturing Company at Bynum. He always took a prominent part in both secular and religious matters, and was for many years senior warden of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church and represented his diocese on many occasions at the National conventions of the church.

General London began in the war as a private in the Chatham Rifles Company, but was soon chosen captain and served throughout the war. This was a company of sharpshooters raised in his native county. His command was first attached to the 16th North Carolina Regiment, but he was later transferred to the 32nd Regiment, from which command he was detailed to serve on General Grimes' staff. He participated in practically all the important engagements of the war, including Gettysburg and in one battle was severely wounded.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Carrie Haughton London, of Pittsboro, to whom he was married 54 years ago. She was the daughter of the late John H. Haughton, of Pittsboro. Four sons survive him. They are H. A. London, Jr., of Charlotte; Dr. J. H. London, of Washington, D. C.; A. H. London, of Pittsboro, and Frank M. London, of East Orange, N. J. Major H. A. London, of Pittsboro, is a brother.

Funeral services will be announced later, as it is desired to await the arrival of members of the family who live at a distance. A number of his relatives from Wilmington have already left for Pittsboro to attend the funeral, which it is expected will be held this afternoon.

CUTTER SEMINOLE BACK FROM CRUISE UP NEWPORT RIVER.

Went to Aid of Steamer City of Tampa Which Went Aground During Gale.

The coast guard Seminole, which slipped from her dock at the foot of Princess street shortly before 11 o'clock on the night of November 28, in response to a wireless message to her commander, Capt. F. J. Haake, that the river steamer City of Tampa, was aground in the Newport river near Fort Macon, returned to Wilmington yesterday morning.

The City of Tampa is a side-wheel river steamer plying between Beaufort and Jacksonville. She went ashore during the heavy gales the early part of last week, and despite the efforts of her crew was unable to get back into the channel without assistance.

The Seminole was notified, and Captain Haake steamed down the river and up the coast to the aid of the disabled boat. The cutter had an uneventful voyage, and experienced little difficulty in pulling the Tampa from the sand where she was lying.

New Tidewater Schedule.

Beginning December 4th, a new schedule will become effective on the suburban line of the Tidewater Power Co., and persons using cars over these lines will find it to their advantage to look up the announcement of the changed schedule which is carried in The Star today in addition to the schedule now in effect.

Discolored or Spotty Skin Easily Peeled Off

The discoloring or roughening to which many skins are subject at this season may readily be gotten rid of. Mercolised wax, spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the disfigured skin. Get an ounce of the wax at any druggist's. There's no more effective way of banishing chaps, blotches, pimples, freckles or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process itself doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face.

Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness are best treated by a simple solution of powdered saxolite, one ounce, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this produces a truly marvelous transformation.

PLAN MEETS WITH APPROVAL

City Executives of Charlotte and Greensboro Will Have Representatives at Raleigh Conference.

The call issued by Mayor P. Q. Moore several days ago, calling attention to the fact that special legislation for municipalities has been abolished by the constitutional amendment voted for in the recent election, and asking for a conference of the executive heads of the State, to meet in the Hotel Yarborough at Raleigh on the morning of December 5th, to consider plans for general legislation, is meeting with approval from the mayors of various cities in the State.

Mayor Moore has received from Mayor T. L. Kirkpatrick, of Charlotte, a letter in which the latter heartily agrees with the Wilmington executive, that some step is necessary in order to secure general legislation that will be fair to all municipalities, and informs Mr. Moore that he has designated Assistant City Attorney Hariot Clarkson to represent Charlotte at the conference.

In a letter to Capt. Thomas D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, Hon. T. J. Murphy, mayor of Greensboro and president of the Carolina Municipal Association, states that Greensboro will be represented at the conference. Mr. Murphy also summoned all the members of the association to have their representatives on hand on December 8.

HAVE THANKSGIVING MEETING

Splendid Programme at Masonboro Service League Wednesday Night.

The Community Service League of Masonboro held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday night at the Masonboro school house, Mr. J. A. Orrell presiding in the absence of the president, Mr. J. P. Herring.

After a short business session, a delightful Thanksgiving programme, consisting of songs, recitations and music, was rendered by the pupils of the school under the direction of Misses Westbrook and McLeod, the splendid teachers who are doing excellent work in the community.

At the close of the exercises, Mr. M. F. Beasley made a splendid talk to the children, urging upon them the necessity of regular attendance at school. The meeting was attended by a large crowd who thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Brings Cargo of Pyrites.

The British tramp steamer Quito arrived in port yesterday afternoon from Huelva, Spain, bringing a cargo of pyrites for the American Agricultural Chemical Company. The vessel, which is consigned to Alexander Sprunt & Son, is berthed at the Seaboard Air Line warehouses where her cargo will be discharged. She is a vessel registering 2,153 tons, net, and is in charge of Captain Anderson, master. Recent movements of the Quito are not given in maritime publications because of a military order issued by the British government.

Oil Stove Explodes.

The fire department was called out at 1:35 P. M. yesterday to extinguish a slight blaze at the residence of Mr. R. D. Christman, No. 211 Ann street, caused by the explosion of an oil stove. Little damage was done.

MISS POCAHONTAS BUTLER BRIDE OF CAPTAIN THOS. D. WODSON

Warsaw, N. C., Nov. 30.—A marriage of more than ordinary interest not only in this, but other states, was that of Miss Pocahontas Butler, eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Marion Butler, and Capt. Thos. D. Woodson, U. S. Medical Corps, which was solemnized at Elliot, N. C., the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Butler, at five o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The ceremony, which was characterized by elegant simplicity, was performed by Rev. G. R. Hill, of St. James' church, Wilmington, N. C., in the presence of only a few intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties, in the north parlor, which had been appropriately decorated for the occasion. Music was furnished by a string orchestra, and to the accompaniment of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, beautifully rendered, there entered first the bride's only attendant, Miss Mary Loed Andrews, of Washington, D. C., who was elegantly gowned in a costume of white chiffon and carried American beauty roses. She was followed by the bride wearing white tulle, with tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, and carrying a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley, and leaning on the arm of her father, Hon. Marion Butler, by whom she was given away. She was met at the improvised altar by the groom, who was accompanied by his best man, Lieutenant Arthur, of Panama.

The bride possesses attractions of mind and person and much charm of manner, which make her popular with a large circle of friends. Captain Woodson is achieving success in his chosen profession, and is held in high esteem by his associates. Captain Woodsow and his bride will make a short visit to his relatives in Missouri before going to Panama.

Guests from a distance included: Mrs. Butler, grandmother of the bride; Mr. H. P. Woodson, of Kansas City, Missouri, father of the groom; Mrs. Baumgardner, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Humphrey and Miss Hopper, of Goldsboro; Mr. and Mrs. George E. Butler, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lee, of Clinton.

BUENA VISTA FARM THE SCENE OF JOYOUS OUTING

The spell of the farm and the spirit of Thanksgiving united a merry party at Buena Vista Farm, near Middle Sound, yesterday. In spite of the lowering clouds and occasional spits of rain, a table was set almost the entire length of the porch, on which an appetising repast was spread.

Numerous placards were hung about to assist in the flow of wit that abounded around the festive board. Among the inscriptions on the placards were: "War News, Turkey to be taken in by the Germans"; English Walnuts, They thrive best in Luuen"; "French Dressing, how they would like it in the outskirts of Berlin"; "Hungry, Turkey's best ally."

After the dinner, field sports afforded diversion to aid the digestion. The intermittent crack of gun and rifle by the hunters was sufficient to make the hapless game run to cover. The following chorus, originated by a member of the party, was sung:

"My turkey, 'tis of thee,
Sweet bird and cranberry
Of thee we sing.
I love thy breast and wings,
Stuffing and other things
My heart with rapture fills,
When thee we carve."

As evening drew on and the time for adjournment was at hand, one of the poets of the party suggested the following toast:

"Here's to a lease (Elise) on Buena Vista Farm,
Where John's good nature so cheerfully glows,
Where the whip-poor-will sends forth its evening call (when marooned on the island)
And where the sweet 'Jessie-mine' grows.
Like a gust o' (Augusta) wind to the farm
In car load lots we go,
We appreciate your kindness,
And we want you to know."

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. John Rehder, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rehder, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bissinger, Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Clausen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Henry Haar, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clayton, Mrs. Eliza Schulken, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Vollers, Miss Katherine Vollers, Miss Gladys Polvogt, Mrs. E. Bissinger, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Runge and Mrs. Glameyer.

CHURCH WEDDING IN KINSTON OF MUCH INTEREST IN STATE.

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 30.—One of the most interesting and largely attended nuptial events of the season here was the wedding in St. Mary's Episcopal church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock of Chester A. Walsh and Miss Charlotte Parrott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeK. Parrott, of King street. The congregation comfortably filled the edifice. Rev. John H. Griffith, the rector, officiated. A large number of out-of-town relatives and friends of the contracting couple were present.

During the half hour before the arrival of the bridal party Mrs. Robt. Parrott, of Goldsboro, rendered an appropriate programme on the organ, striking up Lohengrin's Wedding March as the procession entered. The party marched up the main aisle in the following order: Mr. R. D. Parrott, of Goldsboro, brother of the bride, and Mr. Herbert Walsh, of Richmond, brother of the bridegroom; Mrs. H. P. Underwood, dame of honor, of Goldsboro, wearing a taupe charmeuse dress and silver lace hat with taupe shoes, and carrying yellow chrysanthemums; Messrs. H. S. Handley and A. M. Mahoney, of Richmond; Miss Kathleen Wooten, of Kinston, bridesmaid, gowned in a plum charmeuse costume with black hat, trimmed in plu-colored stuff, and shoes and gloves to correspond and carrying white chrysanthemums; the ushers, Messrs. David Dixon and Ed Parrott; Miss Rachel Kornegay, of Mt. Olive, maid of honor, wearing blue charmeuse and a black hat and carrying pink chrysanthemums, and the bride with her father. Miss Parrott was charmingly attired in a blue broadcloth coat suit trimmed in gray fur with shoes to match and wearing a bridal corsage of brides roses and lilies of the valley. Simultaneously with the arrival of the bride at the altar the bridegroom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Robert Strong, of this city, came from the vestry room at the right of the chancel. The impressive ring ceremony of the church was used. The couple were the center of an entrancing scene, the chancel bedecked in seasonable foliage and illuminated by candles. As the party left the church, in reversed order, Mrs. Larmour Parrott, of this city, played the wedding march by Mendelssohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh left at 10:25 o'clock for Norfolk, from where they will go to New York. They will visit relatives of the bridegroom in Richmond before returning here about 10 days hence to take up their residence.

The bridegroom is a Virginian by birth. He has been located here between two and three years, and has become very well known in the city. The bride is prominently connected. Her family is one of the oldest and best known in this part of North Carolina. Mrs. Walsh is accomplished and attractive; she has traveled extensively. She is very popular socially.

The wedding gifts displayed at the Parrott home are one of the largest and most costly assortments ever seen here. They include hundreds of remembrances from friends all over this and other states. A small sack contains $500 in gold, a gift from Mr. Robt. Strong, a close friend of the couple. A mahogany suite is another present, while there are a number of large and expensive single pieces of house furniture. A handsome painting by Mrs. Robt. Parrott is a much admired gift.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma Kept Her Locks Dark, Glossy and Youthful With a Simple Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

HON. MAX GARDNER TO SPEAK

To Deliver Elks Memorial Address at Victoria Theatre Sunday Afternoon—Music.

Lieutenant Governor-Elect O. Max Gardner, of Shelby, will deliver the main address at the annual memorial service of the local lodge of Elks which will be held next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Victoria theatre. The speaker will be introduced by Marsden Bellamy, Esq., of this city.

The members of the local lodge of Elks and visiting Elks will assemble at their Temple on North Front street and march in a body to the theatre, where the exercises will be held. Exalted Ruler A. J. Mitchell will preside over the meeting. Rev. Father C. Dennen will officiate as chaplain and will be assisted by Rev. E. deF. Heald.

The annual memorial service will be held by all Elk lodges on December 3. Wilmington Elks are expecting a large attendance at the service, which is always very beautiful and impressive. Past Exalted Ruler J. F. Leitner, who has furnished the designs for the service for the past ten years, will again furnish the design at the approaching memorial service.

An attractive musical programme, which has been arranged by Mr. James Owen Reilly, of the committee in charge of the services, will be rendered. It will include both quartette selections and selections by the Wilmington Choral Society.

There are 225 members in the local lodge. Fortunately it has not lost a single member by death since the last memorial service, and only 24 members have died since the lodge was organized.

Mr. Gardner will arrive in Wilmington from his home in Shelby tomorrow morning, and will be met at the union station by Exalted Ruler Mitchell and Mr. Reilly. Later in the day he will be entertained by a friend at Masonboro Sound.

Exalted Ruler Mitchell has appointed the following committee to have charge of the service: Messrs. H. E. Longley, J. F. Leitner, Geo. P. Galvin, James Owen Reilly, U. A. Underwood, S. M. King, Will Rehder, W. S. Register and E. H. Brown.

NEW CASHIER IS ELECTED

Mr. H. W. Wells, of the American Bank & Trust Company, Becomes Cashier of the Citizens Bank.

Mr. H. W. Wells, manager of the mailing department of the American Bank & Trust Company, was chosen cashier of the Citizens Bank to succeed Mr. Richard Bradley, resigned, at a meeting of the board of directors of the institution held in the bank building on Princess street yesterday afternoon. Mr. Wells' election becomes effective today.

The new cashier, although a young man, has had considerable experience in banking circles. He is a native of Savannah, Ga., and came to Wilmington about nine years ago. Previous to his connection with the American Bank & Trust Company, Mr. Wells was employed as teller at the Southern Bank and later bookkeeper at the Murchison National Bank.

While Mr. Bradley, the retiring cashier, has made no announcement as to what course he intends to pursue in the future, it is rumored that he is to head a new banking institution in the city. Mr. Bradley, however, will neither deny nor confirm this report. Mr. Charles E. Bethea, cashier of the American Bank & Trust Co., stated last night that Mr. Wells' successor had not yet been decided on.

GIVE CAUSES FOR GRATITUDE

Wilmington Citizens Write "Thanksgiving Expressions" for Publication in Raleigh Paper.

In the Raleigh News and Observer's annual symposium of Thanksgiving expressions from prominent men and women of the State, giving reasons for thankfulness, published on Thanksgiving morning, appeared letters from four Wilmington citizens, Mrs. M. L. Stover, Bishop Thomas C. Darst, Mr. Hugh MacRae and Maj. William H. Bernard. Bishop Darst writes as follows:

"As never before, perhaps, in the history of our country, the people of the State and the Nation have cause for profound thanksfulness today. God has blessed us with prosperity and with peace. In our security and plenty, may we not forget those broken, starving, sorrowing ones across the water. In our prosperity may we not be deaf to the voice of God."

Mrs. Stover's Thanksgiving expression is as follows:

"On Thanksgiving Day, the nation's festival, every individual should forget the disappointments, grievances and trials of the year and every heart beat with sincere gratitude and every throat resound in praise and real thanksgiving to God for the peace that reigns within our borders and for the blessings which we have received in abundance.

"Our gratitude should also be expressed in the sharing of our material blessings with the less fortunate among whom we live."

"Four more years of Woodrow" is cause for thanksgiving, in the estimation of Major Bernard, who says:

"Among other blessings we should be thankful for these: That we will have 'four more years' of Woodrow; that the women of the West saved the day for him; that California, not New York, was the 'pivotal State'; that the 'Terrible Teddy' is going to the Fiji Islands; that Morehead and Butler met their Waterloo in North Carolina; that Judge Hughes, after a curia advisari vult of fifteen days, decided to join the Conceders, and that Peace, Plenty and Prosperity prevail throughout our favored land."

The following pointed expressions are from the pen of Mr. Hugh MacRae:

"We know that the State government is in good hands; that the National government, under wise guidance, will represent the interests of the people.

"We know that we have not been drawn into the calamity which darkens much of the world today.

"We are experiencing a return to prosperity. The future looks bright.

"Have the people of North Carolina ever had more to be thankful for?"

AGGIES DISPLAYED THE OLD TIME FIGHT AND THEN LOST

West Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 30.—A crowd estimated at 5,000 saw the Washington & Lee football warriors triumph over A. & M. on Riddick field. The bleachers were decorated with the colors of the rival institutions and a gay throng, bedecked in their favorites' colors cheered the contestants in the struggle for 1916 honors.

A. & M. displayed the old time fight and at times outplayed the heavier and more experienced Generals. Time and time again the Techs' line held their opponents under the shadows of their own goal.

The first score came in the first quarter when Washington & Lee blocked A. & M.'s first attempt to punt and after a series of line plunges, Sorrells went over for a touchdown.

The second quarter was a toss up, neither team gaining the advantage. The half ended with A. & M. in the possession of the ball in the center of the field.

The Generals started the second half with a rush and made two touchdowns in rapid succession. In this quarter, the opponents worked the aerial attack to advantage.

Vanbrocklin was easily the star for A. & M. "Doc" Cook and Homewood played a strong consistent game and Lee played a strong defensive game. Captain McDougal played his usual good game.

DONALDSON AND GOLDSBORO PLAY TO A 12 TO 12 TIE.

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 30.—Donaldson Military School and Goldsboro High School fought to a 12-12 tie here today after Goldsboro had scored 6 points in the first period, Donaldson tied the score in the second quarter and went ahead in the third with a second touchdown, but the high school tied it up again in the final period.

Davis, playing his first full game, did the greater part of Donaldson's ground gaining. Nash, Goldsboro's little quarter, starred on offense and defense.

Today's game does not affect Donaldson's claim to the State prep school championship or Goldsboro's title to the high school championship of Eastern Carolina.

GEORGIA TECH DEFEATS AUBURN IN GRUELLING GAME

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 30.—Auburn could not stem the tide of Georgia Techs' fast rushing backs here today and lost a gruelling football game 33 to 7. The victory gave Tech the right to contest Tennessee, the only other undefeated eleven in the South, for premier football honors of this section.

Auburn fought valiantly from start to finish today, but in a hopeless cause. Spence, Strupper and Johnston, Tech stars, ripped up the Plainsmen's line or circled their ends for long gains, while the Yellow Jackets' forward passing generally was successful.

AGAINST MONROE DOCTRINE

Elon College Debaters Supporting Negative are Winners.

(Special Star Telegram).

Elon College, N. C., Nov. 30.—In debate at the annual celebration by the Philologian Society tonight, Messrs. G. C. Mann and C. C. Lindley succeeded in proving to the satisfaction of the great audience and three competent judges that the Monroe Doctrine is now obsolete and that Pan-Americanism should supersede it.

Messrs. G. M. Reid and H. T. Floyd were opponents of the time honored American doctrine and fought every inch of the way. Pan-Americanism seemed to be most defensive and they lost. Preceding the debate a varied programme of orations, music and numerous numbers greatly pleased and charmed.

W. C. Poe, of Ramseur, spoke words of welcome and presided. Marshall W. Hook, of New York, was secretary.

Tokio, Nov. 30.—One hundred and thirty young soldiers have been killed in a collision of a freight train with the train on which they were being conveyed to Aamori, a seaport on the north coast.

MR. THOS. W. GIBSON DEAD

Former Resident of Wadesboro Passes Away in Charlotte.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 29.—The entire community was shocked at the news reaching here this morning by wire that Mr. Thomas W. Gibson, of Charlotte, died at his home in that city this morning at 7:30 o'clock. The news item in the Charlotte Observer stating that he was desperately ill prepared some for the news, but the news of his death reached here before the paper had circulated throughout the city. Mr. Gibson was raised here by Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Covington and was one of the most popular young men of the town. Even after he made Charlotte his home, citizens of this town claimed him and considered him a Wadesboro representative in the Queen City. His death will be mourned by every one of this community.

MOVING PICTURES TO AID.

Dr. McBrayer Buys Health Film to Aid in Sale of Red Cross Seals.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 30.—As an aid in the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals and in the fight against tuberculosis, Dr. L. B. McBrayer, executive secretary of the State Red Cross Seal Commission, has recently purchased a powerful motion picture film entitled, "The Great Truth." This film will be shown at all the moving picture shows in the State and then will be used by Mr. Warren H. Booker in his educational health campaign through moving pictures in the country and small towns.

"The Great Truth" is a thrilling drama and is considered by movie experts to be one of the best productions, regardless of subject or teaching, that are now being shown. It was produced by the Plimpton Epic Pictures, Inc., of New York, and is everywhere being well received.

Dr. McBrayer says: "Much good work was done last year by college boys and girls selling Red Cross seals and we hope to have their hearty co-operation again this year."

THANKSGIVING AT KINSTON.

Prosperity of the City and Section Emphasized in Services.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 30.—With the customary religious observances and an entire suspension of trading, Kinston today took a day off from the busiest tobacco and cotton season it has ever known to give thanks for prosperity unparalleled in the city's history. Ministers in their sermons at morning and evening services referred to the city's and section's plenty and the increase in giving for charity, "for which the community is well prepared." Big collections were taken in most of the churches for orphanages and charities in the city. Many persons whose occupations were such that they could not make a holiday of it attended an early morning service in Gordon Street Christian church.

NEW BOOK HOUSE DEDICATED

An Important Event in American Methodism Took Place at Cincinnati This Week.

Cincinnati, Nov. 30.—A "red-letter" day in American Methodist Episcopal circles is being celebrated in Cincinnati by the dedication by church officials and employes of a new six-story, ferro-concrete modern home for the Methodist Book Concern. The exercises were participated in by represenatives of all departments of the Concern and general church life, the oldest active employe, Wm. Vosmer, house carpenter, with 55 years of service, and Bishop Earl S. Cranston, until May last the senior active bishop of the church, publishing agent here from 1884 to 1896, exemplifying the range of participants.

The formal presentation of the building was made by Mr. Edward E. Shipley a prominent insurance man, a member of the book committee of 25 ministers and laymen, a board of active directors, who direct this great church interest without compensation. A feature of the programme was the singing of a chorus of 70 employes from all departments of the plant, trained and led by an employe, Mr. Oscar Schansen. During the exercises two American flags were presented by the employes to Dr. John H. Race, publishing agent resident at Cincinnati, one to fly over the building, the other to stand beside the pulpit in the chapel. Luncheon and inspection of the new building followed the formal programme. Inter-department celebrations were held by the employes, and the formal opening of the chapel for "preachers' meetings" was observed throughout Monday. The Methodist Book Concern carries over $1,000,000 insurance on the lives of its employes made out to beneficiaries named by the insured.

The Methodist Book Concern was founded August 17, 1789, at 43 Fourth street, Philadelphia, on a capital of $600, by John Dickens, when Methodism had but 58,000 members. For his services Mr. Dickens was allowed annually $200 for dwelling house and book-room, $80 for a boy, $52.33 for firewood, $233 to clothe and feed himself, his wife and children—the munificent sum of $666.33 in all. In 1804 the business was moved to New York, where it began business in one room on Gold street. The first official Methodist church paper, the Christian Advocate, now in its ninety-first year, was started in 1826. The Methodist Book Room in Cincinnat was started by the Rev. Martin Reuter in a room 15x20 feet, at Elm and Fifth streets. Not even a boy was provided as helper here.

It is on such a foundation that the great business of serving the constituency of Methodism with weekly Advocates, Sunday school publication, and Christian literature was established At the present time the Methodist Book Concern has, in addition to its main houses at New York and Cincinnati, depositories at Chicago, Pittsburg, San Francisco, Kansas City, Missouri, Detroit and Boston, the real estate value of which is nearly $2,000,000. And its profits, distributed to the aged and retired ministers of the church, for the past four years, were over $1,000,000.

Methodism through its Book Concern has furnished a literature of substantial and permanent value, symmetrical and well balanced, a literature for the people. It has thus rendered great service to completeness of church organization and work, has aided in giving uniformity to the tone, spirit, polity, and teaching of the church, has made possible the great modern advance in the newer methods and material o modern Sunday school teachings.

GAME CLUB CLOSES SEASON.

Thirty Deer Killed by North State Game Club at Councils This Year.

Thanksgiving marked the close of the deer season which is only open during November and with it the North State Game Club, which has preserves of about 12,000 acres near Councils, closed one of the most successful drives in its history. There were a score or more members of the club who took part in the drive yesterday, which resulted in the killing of three deer.

Dr. J. G. Murphy, of Wilmington, and Mr. E. A. Hawes, of Atkinson, were among those returning to the city last night, who took part in the hunt. The annual drive started ten days ago and during that time a total of 30 deer were killed. During the same time last year there were 37 deer killed.

Mr. J. P. Council was one of the lucky ones yesterday as he killed a large buck deer with a very fine pair of antlers, which he will have mounted as a souvenir of the chase.

New Orleans, Nov. 03.—Ad Wolgast, former world's lightweight champion, was awarded the referee's decision over Frankie Russell, of New Orleans, at the end of a 20-round fight here tonight.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY.

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from any good druggist a box of oil of korein, capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight, and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footsteps become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.

Elvington's Pharmacy can supply you.

Armenians Seek Refuge in Relief Camps—Distress is Great in Russian Caucasus.

New York, Nov. 30.—A frantic rush of thousands of famished Armenian refugees from Turkey into the Russian Caucasus is reported in cables just received through the State Department by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, No. 70 Fifth avenue. The cables come from the committee's agents in Constantinople, Tiflis, Tabriz and Beirut.

These refugees are being cared for partly by the $300,000 cabled by the committee last week, just before the messages were received. This amount, according to the cables, however, is proving entirely insufficient, the demand for mere necessities in one district alone reaching $100,000 a month.

The most startling information is contained in a cable from the American consulate at Tiflis. It is signed by Rev. George C. Reynolds, for 40 years a missionary at Van, Turkey, in the center of the Armenian districts, and by Ernest A. Yarrow and Harrison A. Maynard, also American missionaries. The cable reads:

"After a year of hiding in caves, hunted like wild animals, thousands of new refugees are coming from Turkey. They are being fed by the Russian government but are destitute of bedding and clothing. There is great suffering from the severe climate. After personal investigation by our committee we urge an appropriation of $100,000 for bedding for 15,000 new refugees. Thousands of women with children to support are in distress and hopeless. Our committee is now employing 1,000 women in Erivan in industrial work. As many more have been turned away in despair. We are opening a new center in Alexandropol and strongly urge an appropriation of $200,000 to employ 7,000 women for six months at $1 per week. Moral as well as physical results already are very apparent." Reynolds, Yarrow, Maynard.

Brief message from Tabriz reporting: "Relief funds finished months ago. Distress is great," has been followed after only 18 hours delay by as large a remittance of funds as the committee has had at its disposal for this region.

From one of the most important centers the following message has just been received: "Existing relief work now in charge of Americans reaches over 50 localities. Allotments must be increased at this season. Requests from Americans total $100,000 a month. More funds needed immediately."

An expression of gratitude to the American people also has just come through the State Department to the committee from Beirut, Syria. The message was sent following the receipt of a remittance to provide help until the arrival of the American 1916 Christmas ship to Syria:

"Remittance is most opportune," says the cable. "Please advise all those who are responsible of the great value of their contribution which will preserve for future usefulness many who otherwise could not have been kept."

The navy collier Caesar provided by the government, serving Armenia and Palestine as well as Syria, will leave New York early in December, carrying 1,000 cases of condensed milk for children; rice, lima beans, wheat, flour, petroleum, cottonseed oil, sugar and clothing, which military regulations provide must be new. The clothing will include warm underwear, sweaters, and light weight shoes for men, women and children, cotton and woolen socks for men, blankets and blanket shawls, gray cotton and woolen cloth in the piece and unbleached muslin. The cargo is being assembled at the Bush Terminal, Brooklyn, and when complete will cost more than a quarter of a million dollars, much of which is still needed.

JUDGE J. W. ADAMS TO HEAR ANY ELECTION FRAUD CASES

Solicitor Swain, of Asheville, is Gathering Data for Saturday.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 30.— Closing tongues, especially in regard to political matters, are the order of the day in Asheville, since Solicitor J. E. Swain yesterday petitioned and received the consent of Judge W. J. Adams to sit as a committing magistrate Saturday for the hearing of any cases of alleged election frauds that may be brought before him. Solicitor Swain's action was taken as the result of numerous rumors and charges, made privately and in newspapers, to the effect that fraud and corruption had characterized the recent election.

Judge Adams has consented to act, and Solicitor Swain is busy collecting data on the subject, in order that he may present the State's side of the question when the hearing comes up. Shortly after election, Mr. Swain announced that he would prosecute vigorously any cases of election fraud called to his attention. His statement was regarded as purely a formality, and Solicitor Swain dropped a bombshell in court yesterday when he asked Judge Adams to set a date for the hearing.

Some people who have had a great deal to say regarding frauds, spending of money and other like matters in connection with the recent election, are confining their talk strictly to the weather and the high cost of living today, and are not even remotely approaching politics as a topic of conversation. Theodore Roosevelt would have a hard time getting up a political argument in Asheville.

"I want it understood that this is purely a non-partisan proceeding," Solicitor Swain declared today. "I am going to enforce the law to the best of my ability, and I believe every good citizen, regardless of party, wants that law enforced. I am calling on everybody who has the slightest knowledge of suspicion of fraud to help me, and I believe that if any frauds were perpetrated in the recent election, they will be discovered and the guilty parties punished."

Baltimore, Nov. 30. — John Hays Hammond, the mining engineer, of New York, who was taken ill here a few days ago, supposedly suffering from a cold, was reported to be in a more serious condition tonight.

Philadelphia, November 30. — The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's statement for the month of October, made public here tonight, shows a decrease of $293,960 in the operating income, as compared to the same month last year.

Real Thanksgiving For U. S. Soldiers

TROOPS IN MEXICO EACH HAVE THREE-QUARTERS OF POUND OF TURKEY, IN ADDITION TO QUANTITY OF DEER.

Field Headquarters American Punitive Expedition, Nov. 30. — Among the camps along the line of the American punitive expedition, there was cause today for thanksgiving. Twelve truck loads of turkeys, supplemented by such game as could be secured, was the principal reason for the rejoicing.

"The Turkey Special," which made a record breaking trip from Columbus, N. M., brought enough to furnish each man in the expedition with three-quarters of a pound of a dressed turkey. At field headquarters 20 deer and 30 wild turkeys brought in by Mormon hunters were distributed also among various organizations.

Other features of the celebration at headquarters included a polo game in the morning and a football game in the afternoon between teams from the Eleventh and Thirteenth cavalry.

TROOPS ON BORDER HAVE 65,000 POUNDS OF TURKEY

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 30.—More than 40,000 United States troops, regulars and National Guardsmen, spent Thanksgiving in the El Paso border patrol district, devoted more attention to 65,000 pounds of turkey, than to the Villa-Carranza warfare across the border.

Governor Nat E. Harris, of Georgia, spent the day with the Georgia troops here. Many football games between teams of the Army League were scheduled for the afternoon.

LUMBERTON WOODMEN OBSERVE THANKSGIVING WITH SUPPER

Enjoyable Affair Given at Which Hundred Guests Were Present.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., November 30. — The annual oyster supper of Cypress Camp of the Woodmen of the World, which was held in their hall here tonight, was attended by more than 100 members of the order, and was a most enjoyable affair. The affair was entirely informal, and was marked by no speech-making, although District Deputy E. G. Sipher in a few brief words bade everybody help himself to the good things that had been provided, and Mr. T. F. Barnes invoked the divine blessing.

Following the oyster supper those present were the guests of Mr. W. S. Wishart, manager of the Pastime theatre, and spent a pleasant hour seeing the movies and enjoying selections by a special orchestra. A special Thanksgiving programme of pictures was given at the theatre. J. A. L.

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE OF GUN KILLS CHILD NEAR MONROE.

Two Other Members of Family Seriously Injured and Not Expected to Live.

One of his children was killed instantly while another child and his wife were seriously injured and are not expected to live on account of the accidental discharge of a gun which Mr. Newt Aycock, who lives near Monroe, had expected to take out yesterday on a hunting expedition.

Conductor W. M. Smith, of the Seaboard Air Line, who heard of the accident as he was coming down from Charlotte yesterday afternoon, said last night that he understood that the father had laid the gun down and that it went off accidentally, killing the child and probably fatally injuring the other two.

FOURTEEN MEN INDICTED FOR BETTING ON PRIMARY

New Turn in Probate Judgeship Election at Huntsville, Ala.

Huntsville, Ala., Nov. 30.—The political feud centering about last summer's campaign for the probate judgeship here, already credited with the death of three prominent Huntsville men and the conviction of a fourth for murder, took a new turn today when it was learned that the county grand jury had voted to indict 14 persons on charges of betting on the judgeship primary, W. T. Lawler, the successful candidate, was killed soon after his nomination, and David D. Overton, his defeated opponent, is under death sentence for his murder. Another lawyer and the county sheriff committed suicide apparently because they believed themselves suspected in connection with the killing.

CONNECTICUT'S VOTE.

Hughes Received 106,514 as Compared With Wilson's 99,786.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 30.—The official canvass of the vote of Connecticut for President, just completed, shows Hughes 106,514; Wilson 99,786; Benson, Socialist, 5,179; Hanly, Prohibitionist, 1,789; Reimer, Socialist Labor, 606.

DEMANDS OF THE FRENCH ADMIRAL REFUSED BY GREECE

London, Dec. 1.—The Greek government has sent a reply to Vice Admiral DuFournet definitely refusing his demands, according to a dispatch from Athens.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—Gold, together with Russian and United States securities to the value of $80,000,000, which arrived here yesterday on the Japanese liner Shinyo Maru, consigned direct from Petrograd to J. P. Morgan & Company, New York, was forwarded east today. Of this, $32,000,000 was in actual gold.

Fate of Americans Unknown

Nothing was known of the Americans by these refugees. In Chihuahua City, one foreign refugee said George Brittingham, an American, was seen at the station, but he did not get away on the last train. All of the refugees agree that there had been no killing of foreigners up to the time they left, although there were rumors that several Chinese had been killed.

Joseph Ynez Salazar's command was reported to have been sent south to stop the advance of General Maycott's cavalry column and took no part in the capture of the city One refugee said the Villa commanders, who were each given a section of the city to attack, were Julio Acosta, who was reported to have been killed; Martin Lopez, Baudelio Uride, Juan Murga, Silvestre Quevado, Marian Tampez, and Dorigo Quevedo.

Villa followers are said to have captured five field pieces on Santa Rosa hill shouting "viva Villa" and singing as they charged.

General Ozuna, injured but not disabled by four bullet flesh wounds, routed out the fleeing Carranza officers from the refugee train at Saux and made them return to his command, according to a commander who says he was an eye witness of the event. The general then announced that he was going back to Chihuahua City and that neither Villa nor any one else could stop him.

SOLKY ON EVENING CLOTHES

¶The greatest test of ready-for-service clothes is an evening garment, for it offers little or no latitude for novelty, affords no diversion in color, and is wholly a matter of fine tailoring.

¶Fine tailoring is the dominant characteristic of the new Solky evening clothes, both Dress and Tuxedo.

¶No made-to-order garments can surpass them in perfection of making or in beauty of line.

¶In fact, they are essentially made-to-order garments, for they are made in every variation of size that the human figure demands.

¶The only difference is that a made-to-order evening garment may be all right in two weeks' time, whereas OURS is all right NOW!
